

Contents

	Executive summary	1
	Introduction	3
1	Self-employment in the European Union	7
	Trends in self-employment	7
	Self-employment: choice or necessity?	9
	Individual assessment of work situation	10
	Conclusions	13
2	Exploring the diversity of self-employed workers	15
	Analytical framework	15
	Categorisation into five clusters	17
3	Self-employment and job quality	27
	Self-employment and the job quality indices	27
	Health and well-being	33
	Engagement, sustainability and work–life balance	35
	Conclusions	35
4	Legal and statistical classifications of self-employed	37
	Legal classifications common in Member States	37
	Classifications used to describe genuine self-employment	37
	Classifications defining ‘economically dependent workers’ and ‘bogus self-employed’	38
	Statistical classifications	45
	Conclusions	46
5	Social protection and representation of the self-employed	47
	Social protection and self-employed workers	47
	Common challenges and specific solutions in Member States	51
	Representation of self-employed workers	54
	Conclusions	60
6	Conclusions and policy pointers	61
	Bibliography	63