

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
1. Overview of Library Management	1
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Historical Background of Library Management	3
1.3 Past Core Research on the History and Theories of Library Management: The 1900s to the 1950s	4
1.4 Modern Strategic Management: After the 1960s	6
1.5 Object of Analysis and Framework of Analysis in this Book	9
References	10
2. Influence of Business Management Theories on Libraries from 1960s to 2010s	13
2.1 Objectives and Framework of Analysis	13
2.2 Citation Analysis Findings	15
2.3 Conclusions	26
References	27
3. Incompatibility of Business Management Theories in Library Management	31
3.1 Objectives and Framework of Analysis	32
3.2 Bibliometric Analysis and Case Studies: General Methods	33
3.3 Procedures	34
3.4 Management Theories in the 1960s	35
3.5 Management Theories in the 1970s	47
3.6 Management Theories in the 1980s	62
3.7 Management Theories in the 1990s and the 2000s	68
3.8 Problems With Applying Business Management Theories to Library Management	82
References	88
4. Evolution of Library Organisation and Librarian Specialities	93
4.1 Analysis of Organisational Structures and Functions	94
4.2 Harvard Library: 1960s–2010s	98
4.3 Columbia University Libraries: 1960s–2010s	118
4.4 National Diet Library: 1960s–2010s	131
4.5 New York Public Library: 1960s–2010s	161

4.6	Boston Public Library: 1960s–2010s	169
4.7	Tokyo Metropolitan Library: 1960s–2010s	176
4.8	University of Massachusetts Amherst Libraries: 2000s–2010s	183
4.9	Evolution of Library Organisation	188
4.10	Adaptations in Library Operations	193
4.11	Absorption of Technology and Inclusion of Digital Media	196
4.12	The Introduction of New Media and Ease of Adoption of Organisational Structures and Operations	199
	References	201
5.	General Strategies and Specific Strategies for Libraries	205
5.1	Overview of Strategies for Libraries	205
5.2	General Strategies for Libraries	206
5.3	Specific Strategies for Libraries	209
	Postface	217
	Index	219