

Table of Contents

List of Figures	9
List of Tables.....	13
Abbreviations	15
1 Introduction.....	17
2 Newspapers in early Ontario: a short history	27
2.1 Setting the stage: early printers and the development of the political newspaper.....	30
2.2 Taking sides: Upper Canadian newspapers in the center of political warfare.....	39
2.3 Coming to terms: the party press on its way to Confederation.....	45
2.4 The important role of newspapers in the early Canadian society	52
3 The Corpus of Early Nineteenth-Century Ontario Newspaper English (CENCONE).....	55
3.1 CENCONE periodization	55
3.1.1 The year 1810.....	56
3.1.2 The year 1835.....	56
3.1.3 The year 1860.....	57
3.1.4 Periodization: additional considerations.....	58
3.2 Newspapers in CENCONE.....	59
3.2.1 Selected newspapers for the year 1810	60
3.2.1.1 The York Gazette (Tory)	60
3.2.1.2 Kingston Gazette (Tory)	63
3.2.1.3 Upper Canada Guardian (Whig).....	65
3.2.1.4 The Canada Constellation (Whig).....	67
3.2.2 Selected newspapers for the year 1835	68
3.2.2.1 Upper Canada Gazette (Tory).....	68
3.2.2.2 Niagara Gleaner (Tory).....	69
3.2.2.3 Correspondent and Advocate (Whig)	71
3.2.2.4 Brockville Recorder (Whig).....	72
3.2.3 Selected newspapers for the year 1860	74
3.2.3.1 The Mail (Tory)	74
3.2.3.2 News of the Week (Tory).....	75
3.2.3.3 The Globe (Whig).....	76
3.2.3.4 The Union (Whig).....	77
3.3 Method of compilation	78
3.4 Corpus size and sampling.....	80
3.5 Text-types in CENCONE newspapers.....	82
3.5.1 Text-type tags.....	82
3.5.2 Text-type and formality.....	84

4	Analysis of linguistic variables in CENCONE	87
4.1	-OUR vs. -OR spelling	88
4.1.1	A brief history of -OUR vs. -OR spelling in Canada	90
4.1.2	-OUR and -OR spelling in CENCONE	108
4.1.2.1	Results from the CENCONE analysis.....	110
4.1.2.2	CENCONE newspapers vs. CONTE letters: an inner-Canadian genre comparison.....	114
4.1.2.3	CENCONE vs. CNNE newspapers: a cross-variety comparison ..	117
4.1.3	Summary	118
4.2	SHALL vs. WILL.....	120
4.2.1	Prescriptivism and change from below: SHALL and WILL from OE to ModE	121
4.2.2	SHALL and WILL in CENCONE	130
4.2.2.1	Results from the CENCONE analysis.....	132
4.2.2.2	CENCONE newspapers vs. CONTE letters: an inner-Canadian genre comparison.....	137
4.2.2.3	CENCONE vs. CNNE newspapers: a cross-variety comparison ..	140
4.2.3	Summary	143
4.3	The progressive	145
4.3.1	The development of the progressive from OE to ModE.....	147
4.3.2	The progressive in CENCONE	153
4.3.2.1	Frequency development of the progressive.....	157
4.3.2.2	Present-tense vs. past-tense progressives.....	165
4.3.2.3	Perfect progressive.....	170
4.3.2.4	Voice.....	175
4.3.2.5	Main verbs	179
4.3.2.6	Subject-type	186
4.3.2.7	Clause-type	190
4.3.3	Summary	195
5	Conclusion	199
5.3	Political affiliation and language choices in early Canadian newspapers....	200
5.4	Canadian newspapers vs. Canadian letters: a genre comparison.....	202
5.5	Canadian newspapers vs. British newspapers: a cross-variety comparison	203
5.6	Summary and outlook.....	204
	Appendices	207
	Appendix 4.1.A: -OUR/-OR spelling in CENCONE	207
	Appendix 4.1.B: -OUR/-OR spelling in CONTE (letter section).....	208
	Appendix 4.2.A: SHALL and WILL in CENCONE	209
	Appendix 4.3.A: The Progressive in CENCONE (part 1)	210
	Appendix 4.3.A: The Progressive in CENCONE (part 2)	211
	Appendix 4.3.B: The Progressive in CONTE (letter section)	212
	Bibliography.....	213
	Deutsche Zusammenfassung der Arbeit	221