

sommario/ contents

A Research Project 15
Diego Cavallotti, Federico Giordano, Leonardo Quaresima

1. A History of Cinema Without Names? 19

Four Models for a Nameless History of the Arts 21

Still to Be
Gabriele Pedullà

Why Anonymizing the History of Images? 31

Andrea Pinotti

2. Paradigms and Models 41

What's in a Name? The (Un)Importance of Names 43

in the Historiography of Early Cinema

Frank Kessler, Sabine Lenk

Inverser le paradigme : quand c'est l'œuvre qui 51

« explique » l'auteur. Exemples suggérés par certaines histoires de la littérature médiévale en langue française

François Amy De La Bretèque

Défense et illustration de la notion de série culturelle 59

André Gaudreault, Philippe Marion

Artifacts, Series, and Solutions 73

Casper Tybjerg

Art History Without Names Is an Evolutionary 83

Approach to Art History

András Bálint Kovács

3. Margins and (Hi)stories 87

The Art with the Uncertain Name: Film Literature 89

in the 1910s America

Michele Guerra

Gespenster in Moskau: Soviet Distribution and 97

Censorship of German Films in the 1920s

Natalja Poljakowa

The History of Cinema as a History of a Modulation of the Spectator Bernhard Gross	105
Reflections on a History of Italian Cinema With- out Names: Comedy and Melodrama Revisited Manuela Gieri	113
En l'absence des noms : problèmes d'histoire des techniques et des cinématographies mineures Benoît Turquety	121
Anonymity, Complexity and Distant Reading. Toward a Total History for Audiovisual Studies Marta Boni	129
Non-Author Footage, Fertile Re-Appropriations: On Atrocity Images from Cambodia's Genocide Vicente Sánchez-Biosca	137
4. Topologies
From a Voyage to the North Sea to a Passage to the North-West: Journeys Across the Contami- nated Histories of Art and Film Miriam De Rosa	149
Thinking Topologically: Contaminated Histories of Art and Film Catherine Fowler	157
Quotation Atlas: The Moving Image in Times of Complexity Elisa Linseisen	165
5. Plots, Styles, Texts
Pour une histoire des formes, au-delà du médium Barbara Le Maître	175
Cinematic Representations and Extra-Textual Corollaries: Aggregates, Relations and Aisthesis Julien Lapointe	183
The Desertion Plot: A Moral of the Story and a Moral of the Dispositif Giorgio Avezzi	191

Dialectiques du « style » cinématographique : les figures du modernisme tardif, au-delà et en deçà du nom de l'auteur	199
Dario Marchiori
The Agency of the Agency or: Why do all Corporate Image Films Look Alike?	209
Vinzenz Hediger, Florian Hoof
De quelle(s) historicité(s) la « FIN » du film est- elle porteuse ?	219
Dominique Budor
6. Archaeologies	227
Lumière, Marey, Bergson : l'épistémologie des dispositifs et l'objet de l'histoire du cinéma	229
Maria Tortajada
(Film) History Made by Nameless Children	239
Wanda Strauven
An Animistic History of the Camera: Filmic Forms and Machinic Subjectivity	247
Teresa Castro
The Life of Images: History as Propagation and Modulation	257
Trond Lundemo
To the Anonymous Video-Maker: Subjectivity Construc- tion in Italian Amateur Photo-Film-Video Magazines Between 1975 and 1985	263
Diego Cavallotti	