

Contents

Introduction.....	iii
Jelena Anđelković , Painted tombs from Viminacium and their presentation to the public.....	1
Spyridon Bakas , Amateurs and archaeology. Experimental method or madness? How do we share it all?.....	9
Bartłomiej Barteccki , Goths' Village in Masłomęcz	17
Francesca Bertacchini , Assunta Tavernise , Using virtual museums in education: tools for spreading Calabrian cultural heritage among today's youth	25
Dijana Cerovski , Irena Šinkovec , Communicating archaeology outside of museum walls. Špica and Congress square – case study from Slovenia	31
Roksana Chowaniec , Archaeology on the Web. Educating children and youth through internet portals	37
Roksana Chowaniec , Assunta Tavernise , Fostering education through virtual worlds: the learning and dissemination of ancient Biskupin	43
Anna Cicha , Joanna Struwe , Discovering archaeology by residents of a small town, or on the promotion of archaeology in Mosina near Poznań	49
Karolina Ciejka , Using social media and new technologies in the popularization and promotion of archaeology	53
Marta Fitula , The 'SiciliAntica' Association and its activities in archeology education and popularization	59
Snežana Golubović , Milica Tapavički-Ilić , The Viminacium Archaeological Park and Scientific and Research Centre	67
Anna Grossman , Paweł Hildebrandt , Museum education. Exhibitions and outdoor events as forms of integrated presentation and popularisation of archaeological heritage in Biskupin	75
Anna Grossman , Małgorzata Starak-Juchniewicz , Paweł Hildebrandt , Multifarious transmission of museum lessons in Biskupin in education and popularizing of archaeological heritage	85
Sabina Hryniewiecka , Marta Kalisz , Educational activities, workshops, events or how an archaeological museum can present the past	93
Katarzyna Jarosz , Who's to blame for the tabloidization of archaeology or how to sell science cheap in the Polish press.....	97
Monika Jodczyk , Educational activities of the 'Blue Lion' archaeological education center - present and future.....	101
Agnieszka Kowalska , Kamil Kuraskiewicz , Reflections on popularising Egyptology	107
Rosa Lanteri , Servizio Soprintendenza ai beni culturali ed ambientali – Siracusa. Education and activities in the promotion of archaeological heritage: selected examples.....	111
Marek Lewandowski , Piotr Dmochowski , Archery Tournament in Biskupin as an example of polygenic forms of implementing the promotion of archaeological heritage	115
Nemanja Mrđić , Roman cultural heritage as a tourist and educational resource.....	121
Julia Orlicka-Jasnoch , Educational activities at the Archaeological Museum of the Middle Oder Region	129
Michał Pawleta , The archaeological fête in ludic space.....	133
Joanna Popielska-Grzybowska , Archaeological workshops to celebrate Children's Day	141

Monika Rekowska , Per aspera ad astra... Children at the University	145
Karolina Rosińska-Balik , Virtual reconstruction as an archaeological didactic tool.....	153
Dario Scarpati , Archaeology as a tool for rehabilitation of people with special needs (and vice versa).....	159
Grzegorz Stasielowicz , Education, not only archaeological, in the Museum of Archaeology and History in Elbląg: should we be ashamed?	163
Joanna Tokaj, Dariusz Rozmus, Magdalena Cyankiewicz , Industriae Theatrum Ex Silesia: Showing the functioning of a medieval industry in a contemporary industrial conurbation.....	167
Bernarda Županek, Tamara Bregar , Heritage for the People. Archaeology at the City Museum of Ljubljana and Visitors to the Museum	175