

CONTENTS

PREFACE	ix
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xii

I AN INTRODUCTION TO MURDOCH'S WORK	I
-------------------------------------	---

II REALITY AND REALISM	9
Characters of the good: Theo in The Nice and the Good , Bledyard in The Sandcastle , Tallis Browne in A Fairly Honourable Defeat , Brendan Craddock in Henry and Cato – Platonic reality and literary realism

III UNCONSCIOUS GOOD AND THE SUCCESS OF EVIL	36
Problems of realism: Murdoch's decisions and disjunctions – Characters of unconscious good: Hugo Belfounder in Under the Net , Ann Peronett in An Unofficial Rose – The brilliance of evil: The Time of the Angels

IV ART AND THEORY	80
Basic criticism, the theory of The Fire and the Sun and a reading of The Black Prince

V ESTABLISHING THE STYLE	133
From Under the Net to The Nice and the Good

VI PILGRIM'S PROGRESS	167
From change to defeat in Bruno's Dream and A Fairly Honourable Defeat

VII THE MEDIOCRE LIFE	197
Readings of An Accidental Man , A Word Child and The Sacred and Profane Love Machine

viii	Iris Murdoch: Work for the Spirit
VIII	CIRCULARITY VERSUS PROGRESS IN THE RELIGIOUS LIFE A study of The Bell and Henry and Cato	242
IX	THE DANGEROUS ROAD Magic in The Unicorn and The Sea, The Sea	265
X	THE NEW MURDOCH Protraction and alien forces in Nuns and Soldiers	306
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	349
	INDEX TO WORKS BY IRIS MURDOCH	354
	NAME INDEX	355