

Contents

Niklas Luhmann's Sociological Enlightenment and its Realization in Trust and Power Christian Morgner and Michael King	vii
Editors' Note on the Revised Translation	xxv
Part I: Trust
Preface	3
1 Defining the Problem: Social Complexity	5
2 Constancies and Events	12
3 Familiarity and Trust	21
4 Trust as a Reduction of Complexity	27
5 Exceeding Information and Possibilities for Sanctions	36
6 Personal Trust	43
7 Communications Media and System Trust	53
8 The Tactical Conception: Trust as Opportunity and as Constraint	68
9 Trust in Trust	73
10 Trust and Distrust	79
11 Readiness to Trust	86
12 The Rationality of Trust and Distrust	95
References	105
Part II: Power
Introduction	117
1 Power as a Communication Medium	119
2 The Action Framework	132
3 Code Functions	143
4 Power and Physical Force	169
5 Lifeworld and Technique	178
6 The Generalization of Influence	182

7	Risks of Power	189
8	Power's Relevance to Society	197
9	Organized Power	204
	References	220
	Appendix: Relevant Articles by Luhmann in English	232