

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Compiler's Note - - - - -	I I
Preface, by E. M. Delafield - - - - -	I 3

I. THE CHILDREN

Announcement of the Rev. Patrick Brontë's Wedding—1813	23
Mrs. Brontë - - - - -	23
Mrs. Brontë's Illness and Death—1821	24
Impressions of an Old Servant—1821	24
Little Charlotte Reads Proofs—1824	25
Arrival at School—1824 - - - - -	25
Description of Elizabeth—1824	26
The Children's School Record—1825	26
The Boy Patrick—1825	27
Charlotte as Eldest—1825	28
Charlotte's Personal Appearance (1) and (2)—1831	28
Charlotte as a Schoolgirl (1) and (2)—1831	29
Potatoes in a Cellar—1831	40
Impressions of an Early Visitor—1833	40
Charlotte's Super-sensitiveness—1833	41

II. EARLY FAMILY LIFE

Ellen Nussey at Haworth—1832	45
Charlotte's First Visit to Ellen—1833	50
Drawing and Painting—1835	51
Charlotte's Drawing—1835	51
Youthful Plans—1836	52
Charlotte Teaching at Roe Head—1836	53
Tabby—1837	55
Governess to the Sidgwicks—1839	56
Teaching—1839	57
Housework—1839	58
At Home—1840	58

	PAGE
Charlotte as Governess Again—1841	60
Emily's and Anne's Secret Papers (I)—1841	61
Charlotte and Emily in Brussels—1842	63
Strange Social Behaviour—1842	64
The Pension Heger—1842	64
Patrick's Friend—1843	65
The Stationer's Shop—1843	66
Emily's and Anne's Secret Papers (II)—1845	67

III. BRANWELL

Early Promise—1840	73
Christmas at Home—1842	73
Better Qualities—Undated	73
Portrait of Branwell—1843	74
Further Characteristics—1843	76
Charlotte's Pessimism—1845	76
Lack of Self-Control—1846	77
Degeneracy—1846	77
The Robinsons—1846	78
Failing—1847	78
Branwell and Wuthering Heights (1) and (2)—Undated	79
The Last Interview—1848	80
Final Gesture—1848	82
"In the Light of a Mercy"—1848	82
"Peace and Forgiveness"—1848	83
Branwell in Retrospect—Undated	84

IV. EMILY AND ANNE

(1) EMILY

Ellen Nussey Describes Emily—Undated	89
Emily, Prototype of Shirley—Undated	90
Emily at Roe Head—1835	91
"Emily Loved the Moors"—1835	91
Emily as Governess—1837	92
Emily in Brussels—1842	92
M. Heger's Opinion—1842	93
Emily and the Dog Keeper—1844	94
"Perfection is not the Lot of Humanity"—1846	95
Ellis Bell—1847	96
Ellis Bell's Identity—1848	96
Ellis a Theorist—1848	97

	PAGE
Emily Ill—1848	97
The Stoic—1848	98
Charlotte's Anxiety—1848	98
The Critics are Mistaken—1848	99
The Bells a Bad Set—1848	99
Emily Stays at Home—1848	100
Homoeopathy—1848	100
There is No Hope—1848	101
Charlotte Asks Advice—1848	101
To Look On and Do Nothing—1848	102
"No Poisoning Doctor"—1848	103
Daily Weaker—1848	104
A Spray of Heather—1848	104
Emily's Death—1848	105
Too Late—1849	105

(2) ANNE

Anne and Emily—1837	106
Religious Faith—1837	106
Anne and Her Pupils—1839	107
Anne to Stay at Home—1841	108
Anne's Sensitiveness—1841	108
A Printed Poem—1846	108
Anne's Asthma—1846	109
Sedentary Ways—1847	109
The Misses Robinson—1848	110
Wildfell Hall —1848	110
Anne's Aim in Writing—1848	111
Anne and Charlotte in London—1848	112
Anne's Illness (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5)—1849	112
Resignation—1849	116
Anne's Own Letter—1849	116
Charlotte's Consolation—1849	118
"Something Better"—1849	118
The Scarborough Plan (1), (2), and (3)—1849	119
Looking Down on the Sea—1849	121
Anne's Death—1849	122
The Last Days—1849	122

(3) ELLIS AND ACTON BELL

Posthumous Publication—1850	125
Charlotte's Biographical Note—1850	126

	PAGE
The Poems Reviewed—1846	- 132
Wildfell Hall Reviewed—1848	- 133
Wuthering Heights : Sydney Dobell's Appreciation—1851	- 134
Wuthering Heights : Sydney Dobell's Review—1850	- 134

V. CHARLOTTE

Note by Ellen Nussey—1871	- 139
Sense of Justice—Undated	- 139
"Constitutionally Devoid of Hope"—1832	- 140
Charlotte's Diffidence—Undated	- 140
Independence of Thought—1836	- 141
"Past My Prime"—1837	- 142
First Visit to the Sea—1839	- 142
An Early Acquaintance—1842	- 144
One Aspect of Brussels—1842	- 145
M. Heger's Estimate—1842	- 147
Return to Brussels—1843	- 149
The Little Cat—1844	- 151
"I Intend to Stay"—1845	- 151
Method of Writing—1846	- 152
"Much Better than Likely"—1847	- 154
Currer Bell Meets her Publishers—1847	- 156
Currer and Acton Bell in London—1848	- 159
The Poems Reviewed—1848	- 161
The Bells and The Quarterly Review —1848	- 162
"Incontrovertibly a Man"—1848	- 163
Jane Eyre an Immoral Book—1848	- 165
At the Opera—1848	- 166
George Eliot and Jane Eyre —1848	- 167
Who Wrote Jane Eyre ?—1848	- 167
Jane Eyre's Fascination—1848	- 167
Geraldine Jewsbury—1849	- 168
Second London Visit—1849	- 168
Harriet Martineau's Impressions—1849	- 168
The Little Sprite—1849	- 172
Lord Houghton's Friendship—1849	- 173
"The Big Babylon"—1849	- 174
"The Scent of Their Cigars"—1849	- 175
The Tactless Thackeray—1849	- 176
"A Person Named Currer Bell"—1849	- 177
Thackeray's Party—1849	- 177
Charlotte's Dress—1849	- 180
Millais and Charlotte—1849	- 181

	PAGE
A Square Peg in a Round Hole—1849	181
“ I Do and I Don't ”—1849	182
A Person with a Clear Judgment—1849	183
What Mrs. Carlyle Thought—1849	183
Sara Coleridge's View of Shirley —1849	184
Shirley Compared with Jane Eyre —1849	184
“ Corsing and Schwearing ”—1849	185
Identity Divulged—1849	185
A Visit to Haworth—1850	186
The Lost Calf—1850	188
Matthew Arnold Meets Charlotte—1850	189
“ Plebeian Coarseness of Taste ”—1850	189
The Canon's Suspicions—1850	190
The Sights of London—1850	191
At Home with her Father—1850	193
“ Darning a Stocking or Making a Pie ”—1850	194
Enthusiastic Mrs. Gaskell—1850	195
The Sky her Companion—1850	199
The Edinburgh Review —1850	200
G. H. Lewes Meets Charlotte—1850	202
Advice to a Young Writer—1850	202
Mr. Brontë in 1850—1850	206
Visit to the Gaskells—1851	207
Jilted by Three Curates ?—1851	209
London Again—1851	210
Charlotte Attacks Thackeray—1851	211
The Avenue of Faces—1851	212
Tabby's Present—1851	213
Charlotte Ill—1852	214
“ A Good Faithful Clergyman ”—1852	214
Lewes's Description—1853	215
Fitting or Unfitting—1853	215
Mrs. Gaskell at Haworth (1) and (2)—1853	216
His Lordship Agreeably Impressed—1853	222
Charlotte Accepts a Prayer Book—1853	222
“ Villette, Villette, —”—1853	225
Why ?—1853	225
The Heart of a Curate—1854	225
“ She is Going to be Married ! ”—1854	227
A Letter of Gossip—1854	228
Common Sense from New Zealand—1854	232
The Pathetic Wedding—1854	232
They Could Not Leave Mr. Brontë—1854	233
The Views of Arthur—1854	233

	PAGE
Miss Winkworth on Villette —1855 - - - - -	234
The Last Christmas—1855 - - - - -	235
“We Have Been So Happy”—1855 - - - - -	236
Charlotte’s Funeral—1855 - - - - -	236
Mr. Brontë’s Eulogy—1855 - - - - -	237
Mary Taylor’s Candour—1856 - - - - -	238
Mr. Brontë Alone—1857 - - - - -	239

VI. REQUIESCANT

Obituary Notices - - - - -	245
Notice of Charlotte—1855 - - - - -	245
Harriet Martineau’s Tribute—1855 - - - - -	246
The Bells (1), (2), and (3)—1856 - - - - -	250
Thackeray’s Note—1860 - - - - -	253
Mr. Brontë’s Obituary—1861 - - - - -	255

VII. SOME APPRECIATIONS

From George Eliot—1856 - - - - -	259
From Charles Kingsley—1857 - - - - -	259
From Elizabeth M. Sewell—1857 - - - - -	260
From W. C. Roscoe—1857 - - - - -	261
William Johnson Cory’s Anecdote—1867 - - - - -	261
A Quotation from Charlotte M. Yonge—1872 - - - - -	262
“They are not Splendid”—1878 - - - - -	262
Anthony Trollope’s Opinion - - - - -	262
A Reference - - - - -	263
What the Canon Thought - - - - -	264
Haworth Reminiscences (1) and (2) - - - - -	264
Valediction - - - - -	268
 General Index - - - - -	 271
Index of Publications quoted - - - - -	273