

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xvii
1. "Listen, Listen to the Voice of Love"; or, British Concert and Stage Music in Early America	1
2. "The Wounded Hussar"; or, The First Songs Written in America	26
3. "Erin, the Tear and the Smile in Thine Eyes"; or, Thomas Moore's Irish Melodies in America	42
4. "Hear Me, Norma"; or, Bel Canto Comes to America—Italian Opera as Popular Song	62
5. "The Minstrel's Return'd from the War"; or, The First American Songwriters	89
6. "Jim Crow"; or, The Music of the Early American Minstrel Show	109
7. "If I Were a Voice"; or, The Hutchinson Family and Popular Song As Political and Social Protest	141
8. "Come Back to Erin"; or, More Gems from the British Isles	162

CONTENTS / viii

9. “When the Swallows Homeward Fly”; or, German Song in Nineteenth-Century America	187
10. “Old Folks at Home”; or, The Songs of Stephen Foster	201
11. “All Quiet Along the Potomac”; or, Songs of the Civil War	228
12. “The Old Home Ain’t What It Used to Be”; or, American Song in the Postwar Years	253
13. “After the Ball”; or, The Birth of Tin Pan Alley	284
14. “It’s Only a Paper Moon”; or, the Golden Years of Tin Pan Alley	326
15. “Rock Around the Clock”; or, the Rise of Rock ‘n’ Roll	391
16. “Sympathy for the Devil”; or, The Age of Rock	425
Epilogue. The Seventies and Beyond	465
Appendix 1. The Most Popular Songs in America Printed before 1800	479
Appendix 2. The Most Popular Songs in America, 1801–1825	481
Appendix 3. Stephen Foster’s List of Royalties Received for Various of His Songs, to 1857	483
Appendix 4. The Top-Selling Foreign Songs in America in 1870	485
Appendix 5. Top Forty: The Most Often Recorded Songs in America, 1900–1950	487
Appendix 6. Variety Magazine’s Golden 100 Tin Pan Alley Songs, 1918–1935	489
Appendix 7. The Top Songs on “Your Hit Parade,” 1935–1958	493
Bibliography	495
Copyright Acknowledgments	504
Index	507