

Contents

Author's Preface	ix
Editorial Preface	x
Abbreviations	xi
Main Bibliography	xvii
INTRODUCTION
Introductory Questions	xix
Language, Style, and Form	xxvi
Integrity and Structure	xxxii
Ancient Near Eastern Background	xli
History of Interpretation	xlviii
The Message of Ecclesiastes	lvi
TRANSLATION OF ECCLESIASTES 1:1–12:14	lxxi
TEXT AND COMMENTARY
Superscription (1:1)	1
A Motto (1:2)	3
A Poem about Human Toil (1:3–11)	5
Introduction (1:12–18)	11
A Reflection upon Pleasure (2:1–11)	16
A Reflection upon the Merits of Wisdom and Folly (2:12–17)	20
A Reflection upon Human Toil (2:18–26)	24
A Reflection upon Time and Toil (3:1–4:6)	28
A Reflection concerning "Two" (4:7–16)	40
Varia: Worship, Officials, Wealth and Its Uncertainties (4:17[5:1]–6:9)	44
A Reflection upon Divine Knowledge and Human Impotence (6:10–12)	57
Past and Present Wisdom (7:1–14)	60
Wisdom Relative to Justice and Wickedness (7:15–24)	68
A Reflection upon Humankind (7:25–29)	74
Varia: Instruction and Reflections (8:1–17)	79
Reflections (9:1–12)	88
Various Applications of Wisdom (9:13–10:15)	96
A Collection of Sayings (10:16–11:2)	104
Living in Uncertainty and Ignorance (11:3–6)	108
Instruction concerning Youth and Old Age (11:7–12:8)	111
Epilogue (12:9–14)	123
EPILOGUE	131
Indexes	157