

Contents

List of Plates	ix
List of Maps and Table	xi

INTRODUCTION

1. The Challenges of History John H. Arnold, Matthew Hilton, and Jan R�uger	3
---	---

I. NATION AND EMPIRE

2. Gendering Property, Racing Capital Catherine Hall	17
3. Writing Europe into the History of the British Empire Jan R�uger	35
4. Indigenous Comparisons Renaud Morieux	50
5. Hobsbawm and Researching the History of Nationalism John Breuilly	76
6. Decolonization as Tragedy? Bill Schwarz	96

II. MATERIAL ECONOMIES

7. Jiangnan Style: Doing Global Economic History in the Medieval Period Chris Wickham	121
8. Global History and the Transformation of Early Modern Europe Maxine Berg	140
9. Industrial History, Working Lives, Nation, and Empire, Viewed through Some Key Welsh Woollen Objects Pat Hudson	160
10. Social and Environmental History in the Anthropocene Paul Warde	184
11. Material Histories of the World: Scales and Dynamics Frank Trentmann	200

III. PEOPLE AND POLITICS

12. Five Swans over Littleport: Fenland Folklore and Popular
Memory, c.1810–1978 225
Andy Wood
13. Rethinking Gender and Labour History 242
Sonya O. Rose and Sean Brady
14. Postcolonial History as War History in the Twentieth Century 259
Yasmin Khan
15. The People's History and the Politics of Everyday Life since 1945 272
Jon Lawrence
16. A Visit to the Dead: Genealogy and the Historian 292
Alison Light

CONCLUSION

17. A 'Slight Angle to the Universe': Eric Hobsbawm, Politics, and History 309
Geoff Eley
- Index* 329