

Contents

Introduction: Durable Solutions During Transient Years	1
Marisa O. Ensor and Elżbieta M. Goździak
Part I Durable Solutions and Crises: Displacement of Children and Youth Resulting from Humanitarian Emergencies	23
Enduring Solutions in the Midst of “Crisis”: Refugee Children in Europe	25
Anhared Price
What Kind of Welcome? Addressing the Integration Needs of Central American Children and Adolescents in US Local Communities	51
Elżbieta M. Goździak
Turning the Invisible into the Visible: Stateless Children in Italy	79
Nicoletta Policek

Part II Repatriation and (Re)Integration: Dilemmas of Sustainable Return	103
Refugee Girls and Boys and the Dilemmas of (Un)Sustainable Return to South Sudan Marisa O. Ensor	105
Reintegration of First- and Second-Generation Children Returned to Burundi: A Multidimensional Approach Sonja Fransen and Melissa Siegel	127
Pathway of Hope: A Learning Certification Solution for Internally Displaced Children in Northern Syria Jen Steele	153
Part III Asylum-Seeking and Local Integration: Protection and Assimilation in Exile	179
Taking the Long View: The Consequences of Displacement for Children in Afghanistan Craig Loschmann	181
A Systems Approach to Child Protection: Does Theory Reflect Reality in Protracted Refugee Situations? Susanne Hassel and Ulrike Krause	213
Making Human Rights a Reality for Refugee Children: A Prerequisite to Local Integration as a Durable Solution Emily Arnold-Fernandez	235

“Brothers Will Be Everywhere”: Youth Involvement in Martial Arts as the East Timorese Displaced Persons Struggle for Recognition in Their Community in Naibonat, East Nusa Tenggara, Indonesia	257
Realisa D. Masardi
Part IV Resettlement in a Third Country: In Transit to Various Foreign Lands	279
Finding Better Ways to Support Resettled Refugee Families: Dealing with Intergenerational Conflict	281
Ibolya (Ibi) Losoncz
Unaccompanied Young Asylum-Seekers Stuck in Transit in Indonesia: Intimate Relationships and Resilience	303
Antje Missbach and Danau Tanu
No Date on the Door: Direct Provision Housing, Child Asylum-Seekers, and Ireland’s Violations of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child	325
Narintohn Luangrath
Conclusion: Durable Solutions During Transient Years: Lessons Learned	355
Elżbieta M. Goździak and Marisa O. Ensor
Index	373