
Contents

Networked Governance: Taking Networks Seriously	1
Betina Hollstein, Wenzel Matiaske, and Kai-Uwe Schnapp
Part I Networked Governance: General Issues
Networks, Social Capital, and Knowledge Production	15
Dorothea Jansen
Managing Inter-organizational Networks: Governance and Practices Between Path Dependence and Uncertainty	43
Jörg Sydow
Governance Networks in Politics	55
Dimitris Christopoulos
Part II Types, Processes and Limits of Networked Governance
International Institutions of Financial Market Regulation: An Example of Network Governance?	73
Renate Mayntz
Governing the Crossroads: Interstitial Communities and the Fate of Nonprofit Evaluation	85
Valeska P. Korff, Achim Oberg, and Walter W. Powell
How Personal Networks Govern Educational Decisions	107
Sue Heath, Alison Fuller, and Brenda Johnston
Performing Network Theory? Reflexive Relationship Management on Social Network Sites	121
Gernot Grabher and Jonas König
Part III Investigating Networked Governance: Methodological Approaches
Simulating the Dynamics of Socio-Economic Systems	143
Jürgen Pfeffer and Momin M. Malik

Studying Policy Diffusion with Stochastic Actor-Oriented Models	163
Steffen Mohrenberg
Contributions of Experimental Research to Network Governance	189
Manuel Schwaninger, Sabine Neuhofer, and Bernhard Kittel
Environmental Governance in Multi-stakeholder Contexts: An Integrated Methods Set for Examining Decision-Making	211
Julia Gluesing, Ken Riopelle, and Christina Wasson
Part IV Conclusions
Networked Governance: A New Research Perspective	247
Betina Hollstein, Wenzel Matiaske, Kai-Uwe Schnapp, and Michael Schnegg	