

Table of contents

Investigating violence in language: An introduction Daniel Silva	1
--	---

Part I. The language of violence: Conflict, policing, frontiers

CHAPTER 1

The invention of violence Renzo Taddei	33
--	----

CHAPTER 2

Voice and silence in the suburbs of São Paulo: State, community and the meanings of violence Ana Paula Galdeano	57
--	----

CHAPTER 3

From the side of the road to the borders of the page: Mapping the legibility of people and words at the margins Ruth Goldstein	79
---	----

Part II. The violence of language: Hate speech, speech act, injuries

CHAPTER 4

The circulation of violence in discourse Daniel Silva	107
---	-----

CHAPTER 5

Racist speech as a linguistic discriminatory practice in Brazil: Between the speech act's reference and effects Karla Cristina dos Santos Allen	125
--	-----

CHAPTER 6

Free speech, hate speech, and hate beards: Language ideologies of Dutch populism Michiel Leezenberg	141
--	-----

Part III. The intersections of violence, bodies and languages:
Epistemology, narrative, corporealities

CHAPTER 7

On languages, bodies and epistemic violence 171
Joana Plaza Pinto

CHAPTER 8

Queering violence and narrative: Voices from a marginalized community 189
Elizabeth Sara Lewis and Liliana Cabral Bastos

CHAPTER 9

Discursive constructions of deviance in the narratives of a prison inmate 227
Liana Biar

Index 249