

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Wendy Woodward and Susan McHugh
	Part I Reimagining Animal Myths: Art, Stories, and Poetry of Bushmen
2	Qing and the Animals of the Drakensberg-Maloti	13
	Michael Wessels
3	Kabbo Sings the Animals	35
	Dan Wylie
4	Interrogating the Sacred Art of Vetkat Regopstaan
	Boesman Kruiper	59
	Richard Alan Northover

Part II Indigenous Wisdoms, Animal Aesthetics, and Contemporary Materialities

- 5 Spirit Guards: A Squad of Ceramic Dogs in South Africa 85
Nicolene Swanepoel
- 6 Tricksters, Animals, New Materialities, and Indigenous Wisdoms 93
Delphi Carstens

Part III Global Flows of Animal Myths and Allegories

- 7 The Porosity of Human/Non-human Beings in Neil Gaiman's American Gods and *Anansi Boys 119
Alexandra-Mary Wheeler
- 8 Animated Animals: Allegories of Transformation
in *Khumba 139
Hermann Wittenberg
- 9 Magic Wells, the Stream and the Flow: The Promise of Literary Animal Studies 161
Marion Copeland

Part IV Creative Interventions in Literary and Art Histories of Indigenous Animal Practices

- 10 Border Crossings: Animals, Tricksters and Shape-Shifters
in Modern Native American Fiction 185
Daniel G. Payne
- 11 I'm Mad You're Mad We Are All Mad: *The Alice Diaries 205
Wilma Cruise

Part V Indigenous Traumas and Recoveries across Species Lines
12 ‘The Only Facts are Supernatural Ones’: Dreaming Animals and Trauma in Some Contemporary Southern African Texts	231
Wendy Woodward
13 Cross-Pollinating: Indigenous Knowledges of Extinction and Genocide in Honeybee Fictions	249
Susan McHugh
Index	271