
CONTENTS

Introduction	ix
Key to Parenthetical References	xvii
1. Symbolism and Science: Emerson's Poet as Reconciler and Redeemer	1
2. Sexual Polarity and Sexual Politics: Emerson and the Emancipation of Women	23
3. The Man of Beauty and Woman's Beauty: An Aspect of Emerson's Aesthetics	43
4. A Tragic Vision: Emerson's House of Pain Revisited	61
5. Optimism and Experience: Emerson's Encounter with the Irrational	77
6. Dialectic and Marriage: Emerson's Theoretical-Practical Dilemma	95
7. Divine Affiliation and Earthly Parents: Emerson and the Fall of Man	115
8. The Ideal State of Man: Emerson's Angelic Dream	131
9. Mutability: Emerson's Transformation of an Old Human Grievance	151

10. Heavenly Influence: The Influxus Mysticus in Emerson's Theory of Friendship	169
11. Androgynous Completeness: The Mental Constitution of Emerson's Great Man	187
12. Metaphysical Narcissism: Emerson and Man's Divine Solitude	205
13. The Marriage of Heaven and Hell: Emerson's Alternative to Blake	221
14. Europe and Asia: Emerson's Myth of the Balanced Soul	241
Notes	263
Bibliography	269
Index	275