

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: The Tragic Field and Ernest Hemingway	1
1 In Our Time : Ranging Shots on the Near Side	29
2 The Sun Also Rises : Passivity as a Tragic Response	40
3 A Farewell to Arms : Without Victory	65
4 Men Without Women and Winner Take Nothing : Classic Tragedy, Miniaturizations, and Bank Shots	89
5 To Have and Have Not : The Hero of the Bold Choice	107
6 Stories of the Thirties: Enlarging a Tragic Pattern	123
7 For Whom the Bell Tolls : Choosing Catastrophe and Death	137
8 Across the River and Into the Trees : Shaping Death and Victory	155
9 The Old Man and the Sea : The Culmination	172
10 Islands in the Stream : A Sartrean Path to Tragic Magnitude	198
Conclusion: A Triumph in Tragedy	226
Index	231