

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
About the Contributors	xvii
PART ONE
SELF-DEFENSE	1
1 The Use of Force in the Persian Gulf Abram Chayes	3
2 Self-Defense in the Contemporary World Rein Mullerson	13
3 Allocating Competences to Use Coercion in the Post-Cold War World: Practices, Conditions, and Prospects W. Michael Reisman	26
4 Commentary on the Law of Self-Defense Richard N. Gardner	49
5 Commentary on Aggression and Self-Defense David B. Rivkin, Jr.	54
PART TWO
COLLECTIVE SECURITY	63
6 Authorized Uses of Force by the United Nations and Regional Organizations Oscar Schachter	65
7 International Peacekeeping and Enforcement Actions After the Cold War Nikolai B. Krylov	94
8 Commentary on Collective Security David J. Scheffer	101

PART THREE
INTERVENTION	111
By Invitation
9 Intervention by Invitation and the Politics of the New World Order John Lawrence Hargrove	113
10 Intervention by Invitation Rein Mullerson	127
11 Commentary on Intervention by Invitation Ruth Wedgwood	135
12 Commentary on What International Law Demands and How States Respond Benjamin Ferencz	140
Against Illegitimate Regimes
13 The United Nations and Illegitimate Regimes: When to Intervene to Protect Human Rights Igor I. Lukashuk	143
14 Intervention Against Illegitimate Regimes Thomas M. Franck	159
15 Commentary on Intervention Against Illegitimate Regimes Anne-Marie Burley	177
16 Commentary on International Intervention to Promote the Legitimacy of Regimes Ved Nanda	181
For Humanitarian Purposes
17 An Inquiry into the Legitimacy of Humanitarian Intervention Tom J. Farer	185
18 Human Rights and Humanitarian Intervention Vladimir Kartashkin	202
19 Commentary on Humanitarian Intervention Theodor Meron	212

20	Commentary on Collective Military Intervention to Enforce Human Rights Lori FISLER DAMROSCH	215
Against Criminal Activity
21	Intervention to Combat Terrorism and Drug Trafficking Geoffrey M. Levitt	224
22	Limiting the Use of Force: Self-Defense, Terrorism, and Drug Trafficking Yuri M. Kolosov	233
23	Commentary on the Use of Force Against Terrorism and Drug Trafficking Jane E. Stromseth	237
24	Commentary on Intervention to Combat Terrorism and Drug Trafficking John F. Murphy	241
PART FOUR
ARMS CONTROL AGREEMENTS
25	Limitations and Safeguards in Arms Control Agreements John B. Rhinelanders	247
26	Commentary on Dispute Resolution Mechanisms in Arms Control Agreements John H. McNeill	258
27	Commentary on Arms Control Agreements and Dynamic Obligations Edwin Smith	262
PART FIVE
JUDICIAL PROCEDURES
28	Judicial Procedures Relating to the Use of Force Richard B. Bilder	269

29	Indirect Aggression in the International Court Stephen M. Schwebel	298
30	Commentary on Judicial Procedures Relating to the Use of Force Gennady Danilenko	304
31	Commentary on Formal Dispute Mechanisms Other than the International Court of Justice Barry Carter	308
	About the Book and Editors	311
	Index	313