

CONTENTS

- 1 Sameness and Difference in Children's Literature: An Introduction 1
Emer O'Sullivan and Andrea Immel

Part I Ethnography on Display

- 2 Learning to See: Eighteenth-Century Children's Prints and the Discourse of Othering 29
Silke Meyer
- 3 Picturing the World for Children: Early Nineteenth-Century Images of Foreign Nations 51
Emer O'Sullivan
- 4 Figuring the World: Representing Children's Encounters with Other Peoples and Cultures at the Great Exhibition of 1851 71
Gillian Lathey
- 5 Imagining the World in Bavarian Children's Books: Place and Other as Engineered by Lothar Meggendorfer 89
Amanda M. Brian

Part II Internationalism and Tolerance

- 6 Imagining Equality: The Emergence of the Ideas of Tolerance, Universalism, and Human Rights in Danish Magazines for Children, 1750–1800 111
Nina Christensen
- 7 An Anthropologist Shows Girls a World of Difference: Louis-François Jauffret’s *Géographie dramatique 129
Cynthia J. Koepp
- 8 Information or Exoticization? Constructing Religious Difference in Children’s Information Books 149
Gabriele von Glasenapp

Part III Constructing Self and Nation

- 9 Anxious Encounters: Picturing the Street Child in *On the Sidewalks of New York 169
Lara Saguisag
- 10 Russian Picturebooks from 1922 to 1934: Modernization, Sense of Nationhood, Internationalism 187
Verena Rutschmann
- 11 Appropriating the “Wild North”: The Image of Canada and Its Exploitation in German Children’s Literature 215
Martina Seifert
- 12 Travel as Construction of Self and Nation 235
Margaret R. Higonnet
- Index 253