

Contents

CHRISTOF DECKER and ASTRID BÖGER
Transnational Mediations: An Introduction	7
I Practices of Transnational Visual and Consumer Culture
1 WILLIAM URICCHIO
The Residue of the National: Conditions of Production and the Transatlantic Divide	17
2 FRANK MEHRING
Remediating Silhouettes: What We Can Learn from Advertising the Harlem Renaissance in the Digital Age	33
3 ASTRID BÖGER
Transnational Exposure: The Family of Man and the Emergence of Global Photography	57
4 ANNEKE SMELIK and MAAIKE FEITSMA
Jeans: From an American Icon to Dutch Denim	73
II Negotiating Film Stories and Styles
5 JUAN A. SUÁREZ
Sidney Peterson's Experimental Film Comedy and Transatlantic Surrealism	93
6 HILARIA LOYO
Contested Referents: Hollywood Cinema and Spanish Modernity in the 1930s	113
7 GILLES MENEGALDO
American Horror Films and Europe: Cultural Exchanges, Critical Approaches, and the Case of French Theory	131

8	AGNIESZKA SOLTYSIK MONNET The Transnational Zombie: Postcolonial Memory and Rage in Recent European Horror Film	151
9	RALPH J. POOLE Precarious Masculinities in the New Turkish Cinema	169
 III Reception Histories and Globalized Media Institutions
10	PHILIP SCHLESINGER Transnational Framings of British Film Policy: The Case of the UK Film Council	191
11	MELVYN STOKES Chaplin's Monsieur Verdoux (1947): Transnational Perspectives	209
12	CHRISTOF DECKER Screening Holocaust : American Television and the Discourse on 'Victim Cultures' in West Germany	227
13	TOMÁŠ POSPÍŠIL The Voice of Uncle Sam, the Image of Steve Jobs: The Changing Meaning and Reception of American Media and Cultural Products in the Czech Lands from the 1960s to the Present (a Personal Account)	251
	Notes on Contributors	267