

CONTENTS

1	Healthy Volunteering and Phase I Clinical Drug Trials in the UK	1
2	Risk, Rewards, and Rational Consent in Healthy Volunteering	25
3	Risk, Motivation and Decision-making in Everyday Life: A Phenomenological Approach	47
4	Who Takes Part in Clinical Drug Trials?	59
5	‘Context Is Everything’: The Reality of Becoming a Human Guinea Pig	71
6	Economic Exchanges? Healthy Volunteering as a Form of Labour	87
7	Volunteering for Free Is Dead, Long Live Reciprocity? Revisiting the Gift Relationship	105
8	When Human Beings Become Guinea Pigs	123

References	141
Index	145