

Contents

Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction:

Structuring the Criticism 1

PART I

TRADITIONAL FIGURES 41

1

Augustinian Figures 53

2

Spiritual Figures 70

3

Romantic Figures 93

PART II

THE FIGURES OF THE PROPHETS 109

4

Carlyle's Sartor: The Open Secret 121

5

Mill's Autobiography: Two Deities 138

6

Newman's Apologia: Alone with God 155

7

Ruskin's Praeteria:
The Enclosed Garden 174

Contents

PART III
THE FICTIONS OF AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL FICTION 189

8

David Copperfield:
Experiments in Autobiography 201

9

Villette: Pilgrim of the Imagination 219

10

The Mill on the Floss:
Conversion to Tragedy 235

11

The Way of All Flesh:
Disfiguring the Figures 257

12

Turning Figures 275

PART IV
THE LIFELONG AUTOBIOGRAPHY 311

13

The Autobiography of William Butler Yeats:
Perfection of the Life 319

14

The Memoirs of George Sherston:
Sassoon's Perpetual Pilgrimage 337

15

Mirror in My House:
A Lion Among the Christians 354

16

Muir's Autobiography:
Twice More in Eden 369

Contents

PART V

MODERN AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL FICTION 389

17

Sons and Lovers: A Prophet in the Making 395

18

A Portrait of the Artist:

The Conventions Convened 411

19

Pilgrimage:

The Eternal Autobiographical Moment 428

20

“To Return to St. Ives”:

Woolf’s Autobiographical Writings 454

Envoi: Life as Narrative 471

Index 481