

Contents

Preface	vii
1. American Historians and Antebellum Slavery	3
2. Rise of the Cotton Kingdom	31
3. Urban and Industrial Slavery	58
4. Plantation Slavery	77
5. The Techniques of Control	95
6. The Slave Community	112
7. Slave Resistance in the Antebellum South	131
8. Free Blacks in the Antebellum South	163
9. Free Blacks in the Antebellum North I	191
10. Free Blacks in the Antebellum North II	210
11. The Free Black Community in the Antebellum North	234
12. The Free Black Elite	263
13. The Colonization Controversy	290
14. The Convention Movement	309
15. The Battle for Equality	324
16. "A Firebell in the Night"	348
17. The Proslavery Argument	368
18. American Historians and the Abolitionists	377
19. The Liberator and the American Anti-Slavery Society	388
20. Civil Rights and Antislavery	416

21. The Split in the Antislavery Movement	440
22. Black Abolitionists	454
23. Black Abolitionists and the Underground Railroad	479
24. Black-White Relations in the Antislavery Movement	511
25. Blacks and Antislavery Political Parties, 1840–1848	535
Bibliography and Sources	557
Index	631