

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Note on Texts	xiii
Introduction	1
Elementary Learning and the Middle English Poet	8
The Era of Grammaticalization	13
1. The Language of Learning	17
“Saying Everything in Latin”	24
“Fiant Latina!”	30
2. The Ad Hoc School	41
The Informal Schoolroom	50
Schoolbook Variations	60
Schoolboy Improvisations	69
3. The Basic Grammars and the Grammar-School Style	85
Pedagogic Positions	92
Bread and Milk for Children	100
The Grammar of Chaucerian Realism	111
4. Grammaticalization and Literary Form	125
Ex vi transicionis	131
Grammar-School Poetry	138
Langland’s Latin	152
5. The Basic Reading Texts and Literary Work	159
The Forms of the Texts	164
The Poetry of Patchwork	174
The Middle English Poet as Schoolboy	183
Coda: The Gawain -poet’s Exceptionalism	196
6. Equipment for Living	199
Schoolroom Wisdom	201
The Merriment of the Melibee	211
The Wisdom of Middle English Literature	221

7. The Experience of Learning	231
Learning by Heart	237
The Poetry of Experience	245
Schoolroom Learning as a Way of Life	255
Bibliography	259
Index	287