

Contents

List of Figures	ix
1 Introduction: Intersections of Storytelling and Ethics HANNA MERETOJA AND COLIN DAVIS	1
PART I
The Ethical Potential and Limits of Narrative	21
2 Truth, Ethics, Fiction: Responding to Plato’s Challenge COLIN DAVIS	23
3 Is There an Ethics to Story-Telling? MIEKE BAL	37
4 Forms of Ordering: Trauma, Narrative and Ethics ROBERT EAGLESTONE	55
5 The Decline of Narrative and the Rise of the Archive ERNST VAN ALPHEN	68
6 The Story of the “Anthropos”: Writing Humans and Other Primates DANIELLE SANDS	84
7 From Appropriation to Dialogic Exploration: A Non-subsumptive Model of Storytelling HANNA MERETOJA	101

PART II

Narrative Temporalities: Imagining an Other Life 123

- 8 Alexander Kluge's "Saturday in Utopia": Making Time for Other Lives with German Critical Theory and Heliotropic Narration 125

LESLIE A. ADELSON

- 9 Melancholy and the Narration of Transnational
Trauma in W. G. Sebald and Teju Cole 142

KAISA KAAKINEN

- 10 Memory as Imagination in Elina Hirvonen's
When I Forgot 159

RIITTA JYTILÄ

- 11 Popular Representation of East Germany:
Whose History Is It? 174

MOLLY ANDREWS

- 12 Realities in the Making: The Ethics of Fabulation in Observational Documentary Cinema 190

ILONA HONGISTO

PART III

Narrative Engagements with Violence and Trauma 201

- 13 The Empathetic Listener and the Ethics of Storytelling 203

ALEIDA ASSMANN

- 14 Transformative Tales: Theater Storytelling, Ethics and Restitution 219

ANNA READING

- 15 Towards an Intercultural Aesthetics: Shaping the Memory of Political Violence and Historical Trauma in Eija-Liisa Ahtila's Artwork Where is Where? 237

MIA HANNULA

16 Reading Terror: Imagining Violent Acts through the Rational or Narrative Sublime	253
CASSANDRA FALKE
17 War and Storytelling After 9/11: A Photojournalist's Perspective	267
LOUIE PALU
PART IV
Concluding Reflections	285
18 Narrative in Dark Times	287
ANDREEA DECIU RITIVOI
List of Contributors	299
Index	305