

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Key to References	x
Notes on the Contributors	xii
1 A Passage to India: a Socio-historical Study G. K. DAS	1
2 The Caves of A Passage to India WILFRED STONE	16
3 The Politics of Representation in A Passage to India BENITA PARRY	27
4 Negation in A Passage to India GILLIAN BEER	44
5 Listening to Language JUDITH SCHERER HERZ	59
6 Muddle et cetera: Syntax in A Passage to India MOLLY TINSLEY	71
7 The Spirit behind the Frieze? JOHN DREW	81
8 A Passage to India, the French New Novel and English Romanticism JOHN BEER	104
Conclusion: A Passage to India and the Versatility of the Novel JOHN BEER	132

Notes	153
Booklist: Texts and Further Reading	164
Index	168