

CONTENTS

Part I Concepts in Coastal History From Scotland and Beyond

Introducing the New Coastal History: Cultural and Environmental Perspectives from Scotland and Beyond 3

David Worthington

The Urban Amphibious 31

Isaac Land

The Firth of Forth: What Drives Change 49

T.C. Smout

Part II Coasts Beyond Scotland: Transcending Local and Global Perspectives

Merchant Seamen, Sailortowns, and the Philanthropic Encounter in New York, 1843–1945 67

Johnathan Thayer

The Influence of Post-glacial Rebound on the Island Community of Hailuoto on the Northern Baltic Sea Outi Korhonen	87
Elvers and Salmon: Moral Ecologies and Conflict on the Nineteenth-Century Severn Carl J. Griffin and Iain J.M. Robertson	99
 Part III Coastsapes of The Scottish Highlands and Islands
Three Scottish Coastal Names of Note: Earra-Ghàidheal, Satíriseid, and Skotlandsfirðir Andrew Jennings	119
The Making of the Minch: French Pirates, British Herring, and Vernacular Knowledges at an Eighteenth-Century Maritime Crossroads Domhnall Uilleam Stiùbhart	131
Charity and Philanthropy in a Coastal World: Scottish Fishing Communities and the Shipwrecked Fishermen and Mariners' Royal Benevolent Society, 1839–1848 Cathryn Pearce	149
The Importance of Geography: The Experience and Commemoration of the Two World Wars in Shetland Linda Riddell	165
The Creation of Airline Services in the Northern and Western Isles of Scotland: Impact and Legacy Andrew Rae	181
Thurso and the Pentland Firth as a Site of Sport Matthew L. McDowell	197

Part IV Firths and Other Scottish Coasts

Scotland's Forgotten Frontier Littoral: The Solway Firth Edward J. Cowan	217
Witch Belief in Scottish Coastal Communities Lizanne Henderson	233
A Rock with a View: Re-examining a 1680s View of the Bass Island Amy Todman	251
'...Of Which a Contraband Trade Makes the Basis of their Profit': Tea Smuggling in the North Sea c. 1750–1780 Derek Janes	269
'We Cannot See Them ... They Have Gone Out of Our Reach': Narratives of Change in the Fisheries of Scotland's Great Firths, c. 1770–1890 Peter Jones	283
Index	301