Contents

1	What Is Foreign Policy Analysis?	1
	What Is a Policy?	2
	When a Policy Becomes Foreign	4
	An Array of Explanations	7
	Levels of Analysis and the Evolution in FPA	8
	A Toolbox for Studying FPA	11
	References	12
2	How to Identify and Assess a Foreign Policy?	17
	The Goals of Foreign Policy	19
	The Goals Communicated	19
	Doctrine	21
	National Interest	23
	Deducing the Goals Pursued	24
	Mobilized Resources	27
	Resources	27
	The Power Paradox	29
	Mobilization and Exploitation	30
	Instruments of Foreign Policy	32
	Socialization	32
	Coercion	35
	Interventions	37
	Event-Based Databases	39

Morin, Jean-Frédéric
Foreign policy analysis
digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

The Process of Foreign Policy 41
Segmentation in Six Phases 41
A Linear, Cyclical or Chaotic Process 44
The Outcome of Foreign Policy 46
Measuring Effectiveness 46
Feedback Effects 48
Historical Institutionalism 49
Explaining Effectiveness 50
From the Puzzle to the Theoretical Explanations 52
Theoretical Models 53
References 53

3 Do Decision-Makers Matter? 69
Emotions 71
From Psychobiography to Statistics 72
Middle Way: Affective Dimensions 74
Typologies Combining the Affective Dimensions 75
Cognition 77
Cognitive Consistency 77
Operational Codes 78
Heuristic Shortcuts 80
Cognitive Mapping 81
Cognitive Complexity 82
Schema Theory 84
Perceptions 86
Misperception 87
Attribution Bias 88
Probabilities 90
References 91

4 What Is the Influence of the Bureaucracy? 101
Management Styles 102
Defining Management Styles 103
The Most Appropriate Management Style 104
Group Dynamics 106
Groupthink 107
Defining the Phenomenon 109

Organizational Model 110
Organizational Strategies 110
Effects of SOPs 112
Bureaucratic Model 114
One Game, Several Players 114
Interactions Between the Players 116
Position of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs 117
Bureaucratic Model and Its Critics 118
References 120

5 To What Extent Is Foreign Policy Shaped by Institutions? 127
Parliamentary and Electoral System 128
Presidential and Parliamentary Regimes 128
Parliamentarians and Their Preferences 131
Political Cohabitation and Coalitions 133
Strong State and Weak State 134
Determining the Relative Power of the State 134
Power of the State and Its Foreign Policy 137
Democratic Peace Proposition 139
Observing the Democratic Peace 139
Defining the Variables of the Democratic Peace 141
Peaceful Nature of Democracies 142
Explaining the Democratic Peace Through Norms 144
Exchange of Information and Credibility 145
Economic Liberalism 146
From Democracy to Free Trade 147
From Free Trade to Peace and Vice Versa 149
Critics of the Liberal Peace 150
References 151

6 How Influential Are the Social Actors? 167
Public Opinion 167
The Almond–Lippmann Consensus and Its Critics 168
Structure of Public Opinion 171
Influence of Public Opinion 173
Audience Costs 175
Influence of Leaders on Public Opinion 176
Rally Around the Flag 177
Temptation of War as a Rallying Lever 179

The Media 182
The Media's Influence 182
How Leaders Influence the Media? 184
CNN Effect 187
Interest Groups 188
How Interest Groups Influence Foreign Policy? 189
Methodological Pitfalls 190
Case Studies and Generalizations 192
The Experts 195
Think Tanks 196
Epistemic Communities 197
Experts' Predictions 198
References 200

7 How Does Rationality Apply to FPA and What Are Its Limitations? 217
Rational Choice 217
From Micro-Economics to Foreign Policy 218
Substitutability of Foreign Policies 220
Rational Deterrence 222
Modeling Rationality 226
Game Theory 226
Cybernetic Theory 232
Two-Level Game 234
Rationality and Cognition 237
Prospect Theories 237
Poliheuristic Theory 242
References 245

8 What Part Does Culture Play in FPA? 255
Norms 256
Norm Compliance 256
Norm Diffusion 260
National Identities 261
Self and the Other 262
Evolving Identities 265
Foreign Policy as Identity Affirmation 267
Social Identity Theory 269

National Roles 271
Role Conception 271
Roles as Foreign Policy Guides 274
Gender 275
Women, Femininity and Feminism 275
Nation and State in the Feminist Grammar 277
Foreign States and Nations 278
Organizational and Strategic Cultures 281
Stability of Organizational Cultures 281
Interactions between Organizational Cultures 284
Strategic Culture 286
Strategic Cultures and Practices 287
Discourse 289
Discourse as a Field of Interaction 289
Methods of Discourse Analysis 292
References 295

9 Does the International Structure Explain Foreign Policy? 315
Structural Theories 317
Structural Shift in International Relations 317
Limits and Criticism 321
Can Structural Theories Inform Foreign Policy? 323
Structural Assumptions and State Units 324
Reconciling Agent and Structure 327
From Structure to Agent 328
From Agent to Structure 330
References 333

10 What Are the Current Challenges to FPA? 341
Challenge 1: Beyond Eclecticism 342
Challenge 2: Beyond the American Framework 344
Challenge 3: Beyond the State-Centric Prism 345
Challenge 4: Beyond the Ivory Tower 347
References 348

Bibliography 351

Index 353