

The Italian Short Story through the Centuries:

The Met(A)morphoses of the Novella

Edited by

Roberto Nicosia

Cambridge
Scholars Publishing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Chapter One.....	9
At the Origin of the Novella: From History to Story Carlo Vecce
Chapter Two	25
The Words to Narrate Eros: Three Stories of Metaphors in the Decameron and after the Decameron Luigi Surdich
Chapter Three	42
The First Variations of a Legendary Short Story: Romeo and Juliet Daria Perocco
Chapter Four.....	55
Galileo and the Short Story Crystal Hall
Chapter Five	67
The Word at Play: Variety and Forms of the XVIIth Century Novelle and Novellare Erminia Ardissino
Chapter Six	83
Arrigo Boito's Incubi: A Paradigm of the 19th-century Fantastic Novella Morena Corradi
Chapter Seven.....	99
Pirandello's "La Giara" as Clash of Cultures Linda L. Carroll

Chapter Eight.....	107
Hercules at the Crossroad: Willy Dias' Strategies of Social Unmasking Cristina Gragnani
Chapter Nine.....	127
Short Story, Common Sense, Modernism: San Giorgio in casa Brocchi by Carlo Emilio Gadda Alberto Godioli
Chapter Ten	139
The Dialectics of Humanism in Alberto Moravia's Short Fiction Silvia Stoyanovic
Chapter Eleven	160
"L' Anima Semplicetta che sa Nulla": Some Reflections on the Short Narrative of Anna Maria Ortese Monica Farnetti
Chapter Twelve	180
Revisitations of the Fantastic in Antonio Tabucchi's Short Stories Remo Ceserani
Bibliography	192
Contributors.....	213