

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: China and New Left Critique Ban Wang and Jie Lu	ix
I: Geopolitics and New Left Perspectives
1 Back to the Future: Contemporary China in the Perspective of Its Past, Circa 1980 Arif Dirlik	3
2 The Geopolitics of the New Left in China Lisa Rofel	43
3 The Battle for Chinese Discourse and the Rise of the Chinese New Left: Toward a Postcolonial Politics of Knowledge Daniel Vukovich	61
4 What Is Political Theater?: A Critique of Performance Studies Ban Wang	81
II: New Left Literature in China
5 Internationale as Specter: Na'er , “Subaltern Literature,” and Contemporary China’s “Left Bank” Xueping Zhong	101
6 Constructing Agency: Challenges and Possibilities in Chinese New Left Literature Jie Lu	121

7	Toward a New Leftist Ecocriticism in Postsocialist China: Reading the “Poetry of Migrant Workers” as Ecopoetry Haomin Gong	139
8	The Rise of the Short-short Genre Aili Mu	159
III: Rethinking Socialism and Market Reform
9	The Road to Revival: A “Red” Classic or a “Black” Revisionist Epic in Praise of a Postsocialist China Xiaomei Chen	183
10	A New Narrative of Development in Chinese Television Media Representations of Africa Megan M. Ferry	205
11	Redistribution of the Sensible in Neoliberal China: Real Estate, Cinema, and Aesthetics Hai Ren	225
	Index	247
	List of Contributors	253