

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	xiii
Not knowing grammar: a student's tale	xiii
Not knowing grammar: a child's tale	xvi
1 First steps in grammar	1
Interlude: The first grammarians	7
2 Second steps: the big picture	10
3 Second steps: the small picture	19
4 Third steps: combining big and small	23
5 Inside the words	29
Interlude: The first English grammarian	38
6 Talking about mouses	41
Interlude: Learn by heart	49
7 What sentences do	51
Interlude: The first modern English grammarian	56
8 Sentence building	58
Interlude: Grammatically precocious	66
9 Story time	67
10 Connecting	75
Interlude: Did the teddy bear chase the elephant?	80

11	Talking about grammar	82
	Interlude: Victorian playfulness	88
12	Up with which we will not put	90
	Interlude: A shocking faux pas	99
13	Clarity and weight	102
	Interlude: Redistributing weight	107
14	Clarity and order	109
15	Grammar and meaning	117
	Interlude: Real and unreal ambiguity	124
16	Grammar and effect	126
17	Structure and use together	133
	Interlude: Define dog	139
18	A sense of style	141
19	Grammar on the job	150
20	Explanations	159
21	Grammatical change – now	166
	Interlude: Pluralsy	172
22	Grammatical change – then	174
	Interlude: Thou vs you	185
23	Into living memory (almost)	187
24	Going transatlantic	194
	Interlude: Another pretty little Americanism	202
25	Going global	203
	Interlude: A good good example	209
26	Grammar online	210
27	Back from the grave	218

28	Why the delay?	224
	Interlude: Do as I say – government level	234
29	A top ten for the future	236
	Epilogue	239
	An appendix on teaching and testing	241
	References and further reading	263
	Illustration credits	268
	Index	269