

Contents

PREFACE	xi
---------	----

PART I QUESTIONS OF METHOD

1. THEOLOGY AND CHRISTOLOGY	3
Christian Theology	3
Jesus Christ as Symbol of God	12
Christology and Theology	15
The Situation of Christology	17
2. THE METHOD OF CHRISTOLOGY	27
A Genetic Structure of Understanding	28
A Hermeneutical Method of Critical Correlation	40
The Criteria for Christology	47

PART II BIBLICAL SOURCES

3. APPROPRIATING JESUS IN CHRISTOLOGY	55
A Historical-Hermeneutical Approach	55
Jesus as Prophet	60
Jesus as Teacher	66
Jesus the Healer	71
Jesus as Savior or Liberator	74
The Jesus to Be Appropriated	78
Conclusion	86
4. THE GOD OF JESUS	88
God in Jewish Tradition	89
God in Jesus' Ministry	95
Synthetic Reflections on the God of Jesus	113
5. JESUS' RESURRECTION	119
A Hermeneutical Perspective	120
The New Testament Witness	129

	Theoretical Reconstruction of the Genesis of Faith in the Resurrection	140
	The Significance of the Resurrection	147
6.	THE PLURALISM OF NEW TESTAMENT SOTERIOLOGIES AND CHRISTOLOGIES		152
	Preliminary Reflections	153
	Five New Testament Christologies	155
	The Significance of the Pluralism of New Testament Christologies	178
PART III CLASSICAL TRADITION
7.	THE STRUCTURE OF CHRISTOLOGY		187
	The Experiential and Historical Character of Every Encounter with God	188
	Jesus as the Medium of Christian Faith	195
	The Structure of the Religious Symbol	196
	The Symbolic Structure of Christology	202
8.	DEVELOPMENT OF CLASSICAL SOTERIOLOGY		213
	Eastern Soteriology	215
	Western Soteriology	223
	The Reformers	232
	Experience of Salvation in the Tradition	237
9.	DEVELOPMENT OF CLASSICAL CHRISTOLOGY		244
	New Testament Sources and Cultural Intelligibility	245
	Development and the Soteriological Norm	249
	Jesus and God	256
	The Constitution of Jesus Christ	261
	Conclusion	270
10.	INTERPRETING NICAEA AND CHALCEDON		273
	The Meaning of Nicaea	274
	The Meaning of Chalcedon	285
	Conclusion	297
PART IV CONSTRUCTIVE CHRISTOLOGY
11.	BEYOND SCHLEIERMACHER AND BARTH		301
	Parameters of Modern Christology	302
	Toward Postmodern Christology	317
	Christology in an Increasingly Postmodern Context	330

12. JESUS AS SAVIOR		335
Foundations for a Postmodern Soteriology	337
The Tradition	339
Currents in Modern Soteriology	343
Jesus and Salvation	354
13. LIBERATION AND SALVATION: CHRISTOLOGY AND THE CHRISTIAN LIFE		363
The Varieties of Liberation Theology	365
The Dynamics of Liberation Theologies	370
The Liberationist Interpretation of Jesus	376
Salvation and the Christian Life	382
Eschatology	389
14. JESUS AND THE WORLD RELIGIONS		395
Religious Pluralism and the Christological Question	395
Assumptions and Premises	399
The Normativity of Jesus	403
Pluralism and Dialogue	411
A New Context for Christology	421
15. THE DIVINITY OF JESUS CHRIST		424
Pluralism in Christology	425
Logos Christology	431
Spirit Christology	445
Conclusion	465
16. TRINITY		467
The Question	467
Trinity from Below	471
The Point of Trinitarian Theology	480
Conclusion	490
INDEX		493