

Table of contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| Kristin Bührig and Bernd Meyer | |
| Applied linguistics as problem solving and multilingualism | 5 |
| Karlfried Knapp | |
| Sociolinguistics in New Zealand society: Using research to enhance working lives | 21 |
| Janet Holmes | |
| The future of multilingualism – Towards a HELIX of societal multilingualism under global auspices | 43 |
| Jochen Rehbein | |
| Varieties of English in the EFL classroom setting | 81 |
| Julia Davydova, Georg Maier and Peter Siemund | |
| Promoting the weak language of German-Spanish bilingual children living in Germany | 95 |
| Conxita Lleó, Marta Saceda Ulloa and Izarbe García Sánchez | |
| Knowledge transfer on English as a lingua franca in written multilingual business communication | 117 |
| Claudia Böttger, Juliane House and Roman Stachowicz | |
| Transfer is not a one-way street: Insights on Ad-hoc interpreting in German hospitals | 137 |
| Kristin Bührig and Bernd Meyer | |
| Index | 151 |