

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION .....	1
Quality of working life: Concept and term .....	2
Quality of working life: A core definition .....	3
Rise of the quality of working life movement .....	4
Objectives of the study .....	6
Authors' policy standpoints .....	7
CHAPTER 1 - DIMENSIONS OF QUALITY OF WORKING LIFE PROBLEMS	11
A. New approaches to traditional goals .....	11
Occupational safety and health .....	12
Working time .....	13
Job security: Protection against dismissal for economic reasons .....	14
B. Fair treatment at work .....	14
Fair treatment for individuals .....	15
Fair treatment for groups .....	16
C. Influence on decisions .....	17
The role of workers' representatives .....	18
Collective bargaining as a means to exert power .....	19
Shop-floor participation .....	20
D. Challenge of work content .....	21
The reappraisal of scientific management .....	21
Changes in work organisation: Trends and results ...	23
Difficulties associated with the implementation of changes .....	24
The socio-cultural context .....	25
E. Work and life cycle .....	26
Social responsibility of organisations .....	26
Work, family and leisure .....	27
Work, social status and class .....	28

	Page
Advancement in a career: Work and life cycle .....	30
F. Conclusion .....	32
CHAPTER 2 - A FRAMEWORK FOR VIEWING QUALITY OF WORKING LIFE PROBLEMS .....	39
A. Nature and perception of labour problems .....	39
Problem perceptions and objective conditions .....	40
Problem perceptions as the basis for problem solving .....	41
Problem-solving process .....	42
Actors and their roles in problem solving .....	45
B. Underlying human goals .....	46
Work and social justice .....	47
Productivity and mass consumption .....	48
Work as an inner experience .....	50
Conflicts among goals, and the worker .....	51
C. Economic and socio-cultural factors .....	52
Cumulative nature of labour problems .....	52
Differences among industries .....	54
Generational gaps .....	55
Economic change and labour problems .....	56
Socio-cultural aspects of labour problems .....	59
CHAPTER 3 - THE PROBLEM-SOLVING PROCESS FOR QUALITY OF WORKING LIFE ISSUES .....	63
A. Problem recognition .....	63
Spontaneous protest behaviour .....	64
Scientific and technical evidence .....	65
Political and labour movements .....	66
B. Resource allocation .....	69
Acceptance by management .....	70
Acceptance by trade unions .....	72
Government standpoints .....	73

	Page
International organisations .....	75
C. Technology development .....	76
Solutions: Substance and procedure .....	77
Role of experts .....	77
D. Programme implementation .....	78
Change as an integrated process .....	80
Measuring results .....	82
Some research findings .....	83
State of present knowledge .....	84
SUMMARY .....	88

Tables

1. Generational differences in improvement preferences of male wage and salary earners, Japan, 1971 .....	57
---	----

Figures

1. Configuration of labour problem structure .....	53
2. Quality of work and job satisfaction (Australia) ....	67
3. Quality of work and job satisfaction (Japan) .....	68
4. Trade union attitudes towards humanisation of work ..	74
5. Autonomous groups at Mitsubishi Electric, Nakatsugawa works (Japan) .....	81