

CONTENTS

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Foreword | V |
| The European Academy of Sciences, Arts and Humanities | IX |
| List of participants | XIX |
| Annual report on the activity of the European Academy | |
| N. Lemaire D'Agaggio | XXVII |
| Introduction to the conference | |
| R. Daudel | XXXIII |
| Recombinant DNA technology - Its role for fundamental research and for biotechnological applications | |
| W. Arber | 1 |
| Recent and foreseeable progress in plant biotechnology and its implications, especially for the developing countries | |
| A. Sasson | 15 |
| Recent and foreseeable progress in mammalian and human genetics: Medical and social implications; ethical and moral issues | |
| A. Sasson | 93 |
| The idea of progress in the social and human sciences | |
| M.A. Sinaceur | 177 |
| National policies for the promotion of innovation and industry | |
| G. Hambraeus | 181 |
| Man in society: A psychological and biological being in interaction with his environment | |
| D. Magnusson | 191 |
| Innovations, change and human response | |
| G. Carlsson | 201 |
| Comment on Carlsson contribution | |
| J. Mac Key | 217 |

VIII

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Creativity and socialization | |
| G. Olsson | 219 |
| Comment on Olsson contribution | |
| J. Caubet | 229 |
| Challenges facing the university research organisation | |
| M.H.:Son Holmdahl | 233 |
| Rational choice and collective action | |
| L. Lewin | 241 |
| New wine and old bottles - The lawyer's dilemma | |
| S. Strömholm | 251 |
| Comment on Strömholm contribution | |
| F.J. Taboury | 257 |
| Science and culture in a changing world | |
| C. Aitmatov | 259 |
| Comment before the general conclusion | |
| P. Nagy | 269 |
| Art in the European Academy | |
| N. Lemaire D'Agaggio | 271 |
| Conclusions and recommendations | |
| R. Daudel and N. Lemaire D'Agaggio | 273 |