

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I

COMPARATIVE REVIEW OF CONSUMPTION TAX SYSTEMS AND MAIN POLICY ISSUES

| | | |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Chapter 1 | INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY OF MAIN POLICY ISSUES..... | 21 |
| | A. Objectives and background..... | 21 |
| | B. Ways of taxing consumption..... | 22 |
| | C. The move to value-added taxation..... | 27 |
| | D. The policy option of greater reliance on (or introducing) general consumption taxes..... | 32 |
| | E. The internationalisation of consumption taxation: the European Communities dimension..... | 34 |
| | F. The appropriate coverage and rate structure of a general consumption tax..... | 35 |
| | G. Retail sales taxes (RST) versus value-added taxes (VAT)..... | 37 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 39 |
| | | |
| Chapter 2 | THE CONTRIBUTION OF CONSUMPTION TAXES TO GOVERNMENT REVENUES..... | 40 |
| | A. Introduction and summary of main revenue trends..... | 40 |
| | B. Consumption tax revenues in relation to total tax revenues, other tax revenues and GDP per capita (1985)..... | 41 |

| | | |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| | C. Changing trends between consumption tax revenues and other major revenue sources..... | 41 |
| | D. Allocation of revenues between the various kinds of consumption taxes..... | 44 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 48 |
| Chapter 3 | SELECTIVE CONSUMPTION TAXES..... | 49 |
| | A. Introduction..... | 49 |
| | B. The rationale for subjecting selected goods to higher taxation..... | 50 |
| | C. Means of implementing higher taxation for selected goods..... | 50 |
| | D. Revenue developments in the major excises..... | 54 |
| | E. Specific versus ad valorem rates of tax and indexing specific rates..... | 56 |
| | F. Choices in taxing motoring..... | 58 |
| | G. Choices in taxing betting and gambling..... | 59 |
| | H. Recent proposals of the Commission of the European Communities..... | 60 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 62 |
| Chapter 4 | SINGLE-STAGE GENERAL CONSUMPTION TAXES..... | 64 |
| | A. Introduction..... | 64 |
| | B. Single-stage sales taxes systems of the last two decades..... | 65 |
| | C. The superiority of retail sales taxes (RST) to those levied at earlier stages..... | 68 |
| | D. Single-stage general consumption taxes as at 1st January, 1987..... | 69 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 74 |

| | | |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Chapter 5 | MULTI-STAGE GENERAL CONSUMPTION TAXES: CASCADE AND VALUE-ADDED TAXES..... | 75 |
| | A. Introduction..... | 75 |
| | B. The cascade tax and its defects..... | 77 |
| | C. The move to value added taxation..... | 79 |
| | D. A theoretical classification of types of VAT..... | 80 |
| | E. VAT systems as at 1st January, 1987..... | 83 |
| | F. Recent proposals of the Commission of the European Communities..... | 92 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 95 |
| | | |
| Chapter 6 | A COMPARISON OF RETAIL SALES TAXES (RST) AND VALUE-ADDED TAXES (VAT)..... | 96 |
| | A. Introduction and background..... | 96 |
| | B. Government's administrative and traders' compliance costs..... | 100 |
| | C. Tax evasion..... | 101 |
| | D. The taxation of services..... | 104 |
| | E. Relief of producer goods..... | 105 |
| | F. The tax treatment of imports and exports..... | 106 |
| | G. Revenue contribution and buoyancy..... | 106 |
| | H. Practical and political constraints..... | 107 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 109 |
| | | |
| Chapter 7 | INTERNATIONAL AND INTER-JURISDICTIONAL ISSUES..... | 111 |
| | A. Border tax adjustment issues: the tax treatment of imports and exports..... | 111 |

| | | |
|------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| | B. The use of general consumption taxes at more than one level of government..... | 116 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 121 |
| Chapter 8 | DISTRIBUTIONAL AND ECONOMIC CONSIDERATIONS RELEVANT TO THE STRUCTURE OF A GENERAL CONSUMPTION TAX..... | 122 |
| | A. Introduction..... | 122 |
| | B. Distributional impact..... | 122 |
| | C. Neutrality issues..... | 134 |
| | D. Effects on retail prices..... | 138 |
| | E. Rate structure and coverage of general consumption taxes..... | 139 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 144 |

PART II

TECHNICAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROBLEMS IN VALUE-ADDED TAXATION

| | | |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Chapter 9 | VAT TREATMENT OF SMALL-SCALE TRADERS, RETAILERS AND FARMERS..... | 147 |
| | A. Small-scale traders and retailers..... | 148 |
| | B. Farmers and other primary producers..... | 160 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 163 |
| Chapter 10 | VAT TREATMENT OF CERTAIN TYPES OF SUPPLY..... | 164 |
| | A. Inputs related to exempt supplies..... | 164 |
| | B. Traders supplying for private use..... | 169 |
| | C. Supplies made by public sector bodies..... | 172 |

| | | |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| | D. Financial services, insurance, and real estate..... | 175 |
| | E. Second-hand goods..... | 186 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 190 |
| Chapter 11 | ADMINISTRATIVE AND CONTROL MECHANISMS..... | 191 |
| | A. Return and payment periods and dates when payment becomes due..... | 191 |
| | B. Penalties for late payment..... | 194 |
| | C. Appeal procedures..... | 196 |
| | D. Administrative links with income taxes..... | 199 |
| | E. Governments' administrative and taxpayers' compliance costs..... | 202 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 209 |
| Chapter 12 | TRANSITIONAL ISSUES..... | 210 |
| | A. Implementation issues..... | 210 |
| | B. Technical issues..... | 216 |
| | NOTES AND REFERENCES..... | 221 |