

Contents

Notes on Editors and Contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Preface Samir Amin	1
Introduction	8
1. The Political Economy of SADCC and Imperialism's Response Derrick Chitala	13
Imperialism and the South African State	14
The South African State and SADCC Countries	20
Dependence, Transformation and Regional Cooperation	30
2. The Manufacturing Sector in the East and Southern African Subregion, with Emphasis on SADCC Daniel B. Ndlela	37
A Theoretical Basis for the Development of the Manufacturing Sector in the SADCC	37
The Structure and Potential of the Manufacturing Sector in the SADCC	41
Iron and Steel Production in the East and Southern African Region	47
The Capital Goods Sector in the Subregion	52
Some Consequences of the Subregion's Industry Sector's International Links	54
3. Food and Agricultural Cooperation in the SADCC: Progress, Problems and Prospects C. Mumbengegwi	62
The Food and Agricultural Crisis in the SADCC: An Overview	63
The SADCC Framework and Approach to Cooperation	67
Problems and Future Prospects for SADCC Cooperation in Agriculture	79
Summary and Conclusions	83
4. Limits to Development in Southern Africa: Energy, Transport and Communications in SADCC Countries Benedict S. Mongula and Chiselebwe Ng'andwe	85

The Energy Crisis in SADCC	88
The Energy Situation in Individual Countries	90
Energy Potential and Prospects in SADCC	97
SADCC Energy Projects	100
Transport and Communications	101
Concluding Observations	107
5. The Effects of the World Economic Recession on the Mining Sector in the SADCC Region Denny H. Kalyala and Gilbert N. Mudenda	109
Imperialism and the Mining Industry	109
The World Economic Recession and Minerals/Metals	111
Mineral Resources of the SADCC Region and Possibilities of Effective Regional Cooperation	117
The Coordination of the Mining Sector	123
Recommendations for Policy and Planning	125
A Concluding Note	127
6. The Development of a Local Technological Capacity in the SADCC Region Gilbert N. Mudenda	128
Imperialism and the Commercialization of Technology	129
The Colonial Period	131
Review of Performance	135
Demand and Supply of Technological Resources	141
Recommendations for Policy and Planning	144
7. Trade Relations among SADCC Countries Jumane H. Wagao	147
The Role of Foreign Trade in SADCC	147
Relevance of Experiences in Regional Cooperation	148
The Structure of SADCC's Trade	150
Prospects and Problems of the Trade Sector in SADCC's Economic Cooperation	159
Desirability and Limits of Coordinated SADCC Regional Trade	169
Concluding Remarks	176
8. Financial Integration and Development in SADCC and PTA Countries Chiselebwe Ng'andwe	181
The Theoretical Framework	183
The Preferential Trade Area (PTA)	190
Concluding Observations	207
9. Perspectives on Economic Cooperation and Autonomous Development in Southern Africa Ibbo Mandaza	210
Regional Economic Cooperation in Africa in the Era of Imperialism and International Finance Capital	211
SADCC: Concept and Reality	215
SADCC and South Africa	222
US Policy in the Light of Revolutionary Pressures in South Africa	226

Conclusion	229
Appendix	231
Bibliography	247
Index	255