

---

Contents

Acknowledgements v

Introduction. What is this book about? 1

1. The purpose of this book 3

- Challenging myths and attitudes 3
- Providing encouragement 4
- Changing rehabilitation approaches 5
- Whom is the book for? 6

2. Self-employment – an option for disabled people 7

- Defining the terms 7
- Self-employment is not for everyone 8
- Why self-employment? 9
- The position of the disabled 10
- Discouragement from self-employment 12
- Motivation for self-employment 13
- Working together 15

3. Disabled entrepreneurs: Case studies 17

The sample 17

- Group I: Enterprises still receiving assistance 21
  - Mary Gwande: The Jerusalem Tailors' Co-operative 21
  - The Oyugis Sheltered Workshop 23
  - Jambo's Shoe Repair business 24
  - Momodou Njie: The miller 25
  - Commentary: Group I 28
- Group II: Enterprises which received assistance 30
  - Babu Suryawanshi's dairy farm 30
  - The Rainbow Kiosk 32
  - Binti Manoa's dressmaking school 33
  - Fely Lucas: Pavement vendor 34
  - Bob Sabio and Sons: Figurines 36
  - Commentary: Group II 37
- Group III: Independent entrepreneurs 40
  - José Ocasla: Watch repairing 40
  - Lamin Sambou: The tailor 41
  - Agripa Mutetsa's watch repairs 43
  - Nazir Hakim's auto-rickshaw 44
  - Manuel Tan: Waysonics Radio/TV Tutorship 45

George Karasa: The Museka Butchery and General Store 46
Mang Tibong: Miniature musical instruments 47
Commentary: Group III 49

4. What do disabled entrepreneurs need? 53
Problems of the disabled self-employed 53
Problems before starting 53
Shortage of capital 55
Marketing 55
Other problems 57
5. What is being done for disabled entrepreneurs? 59
Organisations and their funding 59
Clients and the objectives of rehabilitation 60
The training offered 62
Duration of training 63
Capital 64
Marketing 66
Follow-up 68
6. Lessons to be learned 71
Self-employment is not for everyone 71
The disabled are not very different from other people 72
Institutions should be local and flexible 72
Finance may be granted, but loans must be repaid 73
Assistance must "bridge the gap" 74
7. Some thoughts for planners 77
The global scene 77
Self-reliance versus dependence 78
Rethinking planning priorities 79

Annex I: Guide-lines for assistance to self-employment 81

Annex II: Institutions surveyed 83

Annex III: Further reading 85