

Contents

Preface	vii
Frank T. Blackaby and Mostafa K. Tolba
Glossary and units of measure	xiii
Introduction	xv
Chapter 1. Explosive remnants of war: an overview	1
Arthur H. Westing
I. Introduction	1
II. Military background	2
III. The post-war legacy	5
IV. Means of disposal	9
V. Conclusion	10
Chapter 2. Explosive remnants of World War II in Poland	17
Bogusław A. Molski and Jan Pajak
I. Introduction	17
II. Military background	18
III. Explosive remnants on land	18
IV. Clearance on land	22
V. Explosive remnants at sea and their clearance	29
VI. The cost to society	30
VII. Conclusion	31
Chapter 3. Explosive remnants of World War II in Libya: impact on agricultural development	33
Khairi Sgaier
I. Introduction	33
II. Nature and extent of the problem	33
III. Rural impact	34
IV. Conclusion	37

Chapter 4. Explosive remnants of the Second Indochina War in Viet Nam and Laos	39
Earl S. Martin and Murray Hiebert
I. Introduction	39
II. Southern Viet Nam	39
III. Laos	43
IV. Measures to eliminate the unexploded munitions	45
V. Conclusion	48
Chapter 5. Explosive remnants of war on land: technical aspects of disposal	51
Bengt Anderberg
I. Introduction	51
II. Explosive remnants of land war	51
III. Disposal of explosive remnants on land	55
IV. Conclusion	58
Chapter 6. Explosive remnants of war at sea: technical aspects of disposal	61
Willard F. Searle, Jr and Dewitt H. Moody
I. Introduction	61
II. The problem	61
III. On-site analysis	63
IV. Elementary training	64
V. Initial clearance	65
VI. Complete clearance	66
VII. Conclusion	69
Chapter 7. Explosive remnants of war: detection through the use of dogs	71
Robert E. Lubow
I. Introduction	71
II. The dog as a detector of explosive munitions	71
III. Conclusion	74
Chapter 8. Explosive remnants of war: legal aspects	77
Jozef Goldblat
I. Introduction	77
II. Prohibitions and restrictions	77
III. Precautionary measures during hostilities	79
IV. Precautionary measures after hostilities	80
V. Breaches and responsibility	80
VI. Conclusion	82
Appendix 1. Explosive remnants of war: select bibliography	85
Arthur H. Westing
Appendix 2. Explosive remnants of war: a chronology of United Nations activities, 1975–1984	87

Appendix 3. Inhumane Weapons Convention of 1981	89
I. Text	89
II. Parties	100
Appendix 4. Geneva Convention III of 1949	101
I. Text	101
II. Parties	105
Appendix 5. Hague Convention VIII of 1907	107
I. Text	107
II. Parties	109
Appendix 6. World War II peace or similar treaties relating to sea mines	111
Appendix 7. Viet Nam-US protocols of 1973 concerning the removal of the explosive remnants of war	113
I. Introduction	113
II. Protocol concerning the removal of mines in territorial waters	113
III. Protocol concerning the cease-fire in South Viet Nam	115
Appendix 8. Explosive remnants of conventional war: a report to UNEP	117
Arthur H. Westing et al.
I. Introduction	117
II. Summary	117
III. Definitions and estimated magnitudes	118
IV. Economic and environmental problems and loss of life and property	121
V. Demands of affected countries and extent to which responsible states are willing to compensate and assist those countries	126
VI. Legal aspects	128
VII. International co-operation required to solve the problem, including the role of the United Nations	131
VIII. Recommendations	133
Index	137