

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Exile Literature and the Role of Comparative Literary Scholarship	7
I. HISTORY:
Aliens in Latin America: Functions, Cycles and Reactions	25
	-Mark D. Szuchman
Historical Background and Patterns of the Exodus of European Exile Writers	49
	-Hans-Bernhard Moeller
II. SPECIAL PROBLEMS:
The Varieties of Exile Experience: German, Polish, and Spanish Writers	71
	-John M. Spalek
Memoir and Method of the Émigré Exile Scholar: A Viennese Consciousness in the Andes	91
	-Egon Schwarz
English Literary Adventurers in Labyrinthine Mexico	97
	-Ronald G. Walker
The Jewish Exile-Intelligentsia in Latin America As Exemplified by Mexico	113
	-Marianne O. de Bopp
Outside-Inside Views of Exile: Spanish Women Novelists and Younger Generation Writers	137
	-Carolyn L. Galerstein
III. GENERIC PERSPECTIVES:
The Indios as Seen by the European Exile Writers With an Emphasis on Exile Legend	151
	-Wulf Koepke
Profile of German and Spanish Exile Poets in Latin America	181
	-Oscar Caeiro
Spanish Civil War and Exile in the Novels of Aub, Ayala and Sender	207
	-Janet W. Diaz
Exile Drama: the Example of Argentina	233
	-Ward B. Lewis
Filmmaking in Exile: The Irrepressible Buñuel (And a Cast of Dozens)	245
	-Julianne Burton

IV. FOCUS ON REGIONS:

Down (But Not Out) in Mexico City and Other Subtropical Places	267
	-Manuel Durán
Ukrainian And Spanish Exile Writers in Argentina	277
	-Olga H. Saciuk
French and German Writers in Exile in Brazil: Reception and Translations	293
	-Susan Eisenberg-Bach

V. AUTHORS:

Gustav Regler and Ramón Sender: A Comparative Study of Their Mexican Exile	311
	-Robert Acker
An Epic Journey to Brazil: The Exile Poems of Julian Tuwim and Ulrich Becher	323
	-Elizabeth J. Krukowski
Stefan Zweig's and Gilberto Freyre's Views of Brazil as Country of the Future	347
	-Sonja P. Karsen and Mark Ritter
VI. NOTES	363
VII. SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	401
VIII. BIO-BIBLIOGRAPHICAL WHO'S WHO of European Exiles in Ibero-America	421
Notes on Contributors	469