

Contents

	page
Introduction by A. Robert Lee	7
1 'The Children of these Fathers': The Origins of an Autobiographical Tradition in America by Elizabeth Kaspar Aldrich	15
2 Exemplary Selves: Jonathan Edwards and Benjamin Franklin by David Seed	37
3 Transcendentalism and Autobiography: Emerson, Whitman and Thoreau by Brian Harding	57
4 The Ever-receding Dream: Henry Adams and Mark Twain as Autobiographers by Warren L. Chernaik	72
5 Henry James's Autobiography: The Education of a Novelist by David Ellis	104
6 Enclosure/Disclosure: A Tradition of American Autobiography by Women by Faith Pullin	125
7 'The Stance of Self-Representation': Moderns and Contemporaries in Afro-American Autobiography by A. Robert Lee	151
8 Authenticity and Text in American Indian, Hispanic and Asian Autobiography by David Murray	177
9 The Haunted House: Jewish-American Autobiography by Michael Woolf	198
10 Norman Mailer: Frontline Reporter of the Divine Economy by Eric Mottram	217
Notes on Contributors	245
Index	247