

Contents

Foreword by Professor Nicolas Binctin	ix
Preface	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
List of figures	xv
Table of legislation	xvii
Table of cases	xix
PART I
The corporate IP landscape	1
1 Corporate governance and IP assets	3
1.1 IP rights and corporate governance	8
1.2 The corporate IP owners' perspective	10
1.3 Users of IP asset information: the financiers' perspective	10
1.4 The corporate regulator's perspective	12
1.5 The need for a multidisciplinary approach to corporate IP	14
1.6 Corporate IP assets in the business environment	15
1.7 Communicating how IP creates value	17
2 Corporate governance: the IP and patent ecosystem	19
2.1 Why firms invest in IP and patents	20
2.2 The Political, Economic, Social, Technological and Legal (PESTL) model	21
2.3 Political factors that impact on UK IP and patent policy	22
2.4 Economic factors that impact IP as a driver for innovation	24
2.5 Social impact: a behavioural economics approach to evaluating barriers to innovation	29
2.6 Technology issues that affect the patent ecosystem	38
2.7 The legal factor: enforcing IP rights	44
2.8 Corporate governance and IP: concluding remarks	50

PART II

The IP finance dimension: corporate governance and transparency 53

3 Bridging the gap between corporate finance and corporate governance 55

- 3.1 The power of debt finance to generate returns for innovation firms* 56
- 3.2 Financing innovation and the business life cycle* 57
- 3.3 Financing innovation: the existing paradigm* 59
- 3.4 WIPO IP Advantage database analysis* 72
- 3.5 Basel III banking capital adequacy requirements: an adverse impact on IP finance* 76
- 3.6 The lenders' triad of concerns: uncertainty, risk and liquidity* 78
- 3.7 Transparency and registering security interests in patents* 79
- 3.8 The role of corporate governance in supporting access to IP finance* 86

PART III

Accounting for IP: corporate IP assets and transparency 89

4 True and fair patent valuation: a corporate governance issue? 91

- 4.1 The invisibility of IP and patent value on the balance sheet* 92
- 4.2 Uncertainty, patent valuation and impact of corporate debt finance* 96
- 4.3 The intersection of accounting and company law: bridging the gap between corporate finance and governance* 104
- 4.4 Achieving a true and fair view of internally generated intangibles* 129

PART IV

The corporate governance dimension: developing a normative practice in IP reporting 133

5 Transparency in corporate IP asset reporting 135

- 5.1 Corporate reporting under the UK Companies Act 2006* 137
- 5.2 SMEs, plcs and corporate IP asset disclosure* 138
- 5.3 Materiality and public companies' IP disclosures* 151

5.4	The benefits of communication and increased corporate IP asset disclosure	154
5.5	The importance of non-financial corporate IP information	156
6	International initiatives in corporate narrative IP asset disclosure	158
6.1	The Intellectual Capital Statement (ICS)	159
6.2	International policy initiatives regarding mandatory IC reporting	162
6.3	An evolving conceptual framework for corporate IP asset disclosure	174
6.4	Final remarks on corporate IP asset transparency and disclosure	176
7	Substance and form: developing a normative practice for corporate narrative IP asset disclosures	178
7.1	The UK FRC's guidance on the Strategic Report	179
7.2	Mini-case study: GlaxoSmithKline plc 2012 Annual Report	183
7.3	Corporate IP disclosures: evaluating the findings of the Banking on IP? report and the Final Report from the Expert Group on Intellectual Property Valuation	206
7.4	Corporate IP disclosure: breadth, depth and scope	207
8	A triage-style 'materiality evaluation model' for IP and patent disclosures	209
8.1	Views on solving the corporate IP transparency problem	211
8.2	A new triage style IP disclosure materiality evaluation model	216
8.3	Criticism of narrative IP disclosures	234
8.4	Implementation	236
8.5	Modern corporate governance and IP assets	237
9	Corporate governance and IP value creation reporting: reflections, conclusions and recommendations	240
9.1	IP in the boardroom	247
9.2	The great IP education challenge	249
9.3	Is there a case for doing nothing?	251
	Bibliography	253
	Biography and list of publications	275
	Index	277