

Contents

I. Opening Ceremony

Opening of the Congress by the Minister of Education. K. Kivistö	2
Statement by the Official Representative from UNESCO. Z. Zachariev	5
Statement by the President of ICSPE. Sir Roger Bannister	7
Welcoming Address by the Chairman of the Organising Committee. J. Perttunen	9

II. The Role of International Sport in Advancing or Weakening International Co-existence and Understanding

1. The Role of Sport in International Cultural and Social Co-operation

Sport and International Understanding: Sport as a Carrier of Deep Culture and Structure. J. Galtung	12
The Totalisation Process in International Sport. K. Heinilä	20
On the Character and Contents of Sport and of International Sporting Activities at Present and in the Future. G. Erbach	31
The Role of International Sporting Ties in Strengthening Peace and Understanding Between Nations. V. Stolyarov and L. Sanadze	38
Sport, International Conflict and Conflict Resolution. G. Lüschen	47
The Idealistic and Factual Role of Sport in International Understanding. P. Seppänen	57
Nationalism and Internationalism in Sport. R. Väyrynen	64
Possibilities of Understanding Modern Sport on the Basis of Aristotelian Theory. K. Kirsch and I. Schüssler	72
The Social Significance of International Sporting Activity. N. Petrova	78

2. The Role of Sport in International Politics

Sport in Europe and the Helsinki Agreements. O. Milshtein	82
Sport, Political Autonomy and International Understanding. B. F. Booth	92
The Integrational Functions of Competitive Sport and Its Role in Shaping International Competition, Co-operation and Mutual Understanding. A. Wohl	99

The New International Sports Order: An Appraisal. A. Hietanen	104
The Objectives of Sport and International Understanding. D. Happel and R. Kramer	108
Fairness, Democracy and Justice. F. de Wachter	111

3. The Role of the Olympic Games

The Notions of Peace of Selected Leaders of the Olympic Movement and Their Realisation in the Olympic Games. A. Krüger	116
Pierre de Coubertin and World Peace. R. Petrov	121
The Role of the Olympic Games in International Understanding. G. Paulín and R. Jimenez	125
Challenges Facing the Olympic Movement – The Outcome of the XIth Olympic Congress. P. Tallberg	128
The importance of the International Sports Movement in Promoting Inter- national Understanding – The Viewpoint of an Olympic Athlete. H. Kirvesniemi	132
Great Britain and the 1980 Olympics: A Victory for Olympism. J. Riordan ...	138
The Canadian Absence from the XXIIInd Olympiad – Some Plausible Explanations. H. Cantelon	145
The New Role of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Y. S. Han	152

4. The Role of International Organisations

UNESCO's Role in the Field of Sport and Physical Education and the Challenges Facing International Sporting Links in the Future. Z. Zachariev	160
Organisations for Sport Sciences: Developments and Perspectives. M. Hebbelinck	167
On Some Essential Tasks of and Prospects for International Co-operation in Sport Science. E. Buggel	174
Sport and Health: An Outline of the World Health Organization's Position. M. J. Karvonen	177
International Workers' Sport as a Means of Bringing Peoples Together. M. Ahde	180
Nordic Co-operation in Sports. M. Ståhlberg	186
School Sport Across Borders – Education in Internationalism. A. Sastamala ...	189
The Finnish Student Sports Federation as a Promoter of International Understanding. H. Mäki-Reinikka	193
The Prerequisites for the Improvement of International Understanding by Sports Organisations. T. Niwa	196

III. The Extent and Content of International Co-operation in Sport

1. Competitive and Top-Level Sport

- On the History of International Co-operation: Some Trends. A. Hietanen 208
- Sport and International Understanding: A Survey of the Structure and Trends of International Sporting Co-operation. A. Hietanen and T. Varis .. 213
- Competitive Sport and International Understanding: Some Sociological Observations on the World University Games of 1983. P. A. Saram 231

2. Sport for All

- The Extent, Content and Organisation of International Co-operation in the Past, Present and Future in Respect of Sport for All. T. Wolańska 236
- European Health Tour 1984 - Promoting Health Through Sport and International Co-operation. N. Daly 241
- Marathon Peace March: A Demonstration of International Understanding. A. Laitinen 248
- Ways of Promoting Voluntary Physical Activity in Present-Day Society. L. Heinilä 255

3. Sport for Special Groups

- The Extent, Content and Organisation of International Sport for the Disabled in the Past, Present and Future. K.-A. Jochheim 262
- The Improvement of International Co-operation and Exchange of Information in Relation to Sports for the Disabled and Other Special Groups. M. Jääskeläinen, E. Heikkinen, K. Koivumäki, U. Lahtinen and V. Puputti 267
- Volunteers in Sport for the Disabled: A Case Study. J. Drowatzky and H. Marcal 271

IV. Measures Related to International Co-operation in Sport

1. Mass Media and International Understanding

- International Communication, Sport and International Understanding. P. C. McIntosh 276
- Sport in the Mass Media and International Understanding. A. Kirsch and W. Preising 285
- Mass Media, Sport and International Understanding. W. Gitter 292

2. Co-operation with Developing Countries

- Co-operation Between Developing Countries and Advanced Countries in Respect of Sport. M. O. Ajisafe 298

Co-operation with Developing Countries in Matters of Sport. T. Varis	304
Report of a Longitudinal Project in Sport Promotion in Brazil as a Means of Fostering International Understanding. L. Diem	307
3. National Measures
International Sport Relations. T. Bedecki	312
The Significance of International Co-operation in the Field of Physical Culture Sciences for International Understanding. F. Šýkora	316
Sport and Non-alignment: Dilemmas and Prospects. K. Petrovič, M. Žvan and R. Šugman	319
The State as Sponsor of International Sports. H. Klemola	323
The Meaning of International Sporting Events to a Small Country (from the Viewpoint of a Sports Leader). J. Uunila	327
Gymnastics as a Subject in Finnish Secondary Schools Between 1843 and 1917. I. Koivusalo	330
International Exchange in Terms of the Recruitment of Star Foreign Players: The Reactions of Sports Clubs in Finnish Basketball. K. Olin	335
Some Recreational and Social Sporting Activities of the Mapuche Indians in the South of Chile. C. López von Vriessen	339
4. Other Measures
Sports Medicine Training in Kuopio - International Co-operation. J. E. Caldwell	346
Structural Variation and Sport Policy: A Comparison of Canadian and British Sport Systems. G. A. Olafson	352
V. Conclusions
Summary of the Theme "The Role of International Sport in Advancing or Weakening International Co-existence and Understanding" (Section II). G. Walker	360
Summary of the Theme "The Extent and Content of International Co-operation in Sport" (Section III). M. J. Karvonen	361
Summary of the Theme "Measures Related to International Co-operation in Sport" (Section IV). A. Koskela and E. Buggel	363
Summary of the Congress by the Chairman of the Scientific Committee. P. Vuolle	365
Final Statement by the President of the International Council of Sport and Physical Education (ICSPE). Sir Roger Bannister	368
Subject Index	371