

Inhaltsverzeichnis

	Seite
VORWORT	7
1. Arthur Andersen Embroiled in Suits	9
2. Britain Sues Accountants for De Lorean Firm	11
3. U.S. Accountants Fear Merger of 2 Giant Firms	12
4. Stauffer Settles with SEC	14
5. SEC Bans Accounting Plan That Aids Software Earnings	15
6. Thrift's Accounting Practices Are Described as Unusual	16
7. Acid Rain Problem Spreading	17
8. Textron: Back in Acquisition Mode	18
9. Few Signs of Upturn for U.S. Farmers	20
Traders Ponder Prospects for Farm-Futures Options	21
10. Emery's Freight Strategy Paying Off	22
11. U.S. Airline Stocks Sag Amid Fears of Fare War	23
12. Aluminum Industry Is Modernizing in U.S. in Fight for Competitiveness	24
13. U.S. Judge Rules for Laker on Place of Suit	26
14. Continuation Seen in U.S. Antitrust Policy	27
15. U.S. Airlines Get Antitrust Waiver for Delay Talks	28
16. Modern Arbitrators Are 'In Truth, Simply Bankers'	29
17. AT&T Braces for Breakup	31
18. AT&T Struggling for Efficiency	32
19. Austria Vows to Curb Soviet Bloc Re-Exports	33
20. U.S. Gasoline Stations Gear Up for Instant Payment by Machine	34
21. Big Cars Are Making a Comeback in U.S.	35
22. U.S. Seeks 1.1-Million-Car Recall by GM	36
23. Some Are Winners, Some Are Losers After U.S. Banking Deregulation	37
24. Rules Eased on Some U.S. Accounts	39
25. Banks in U.S. Are Preparing for Surge in Loan Demand	40
26. Bank Regulators Plan Guidelines	41
27. Use or Abuse of the U.S. Bankruptcy Act	43
28. Baldwin-United Asks Protection from Creditors	45
29. Tax-Exempt Bearer Bonds Won't Do	46
30. GM Defends Bonuses for Executives	47
Bonus Issue Revives Car-Quota Fight	47
31. More U.S. Firms Are Going Private	48
32. Banks Putting the Brakes on Leveraged Buyouts	50
33. Leveraged-Buyout Fund Is Proposed	51
34. Bush to Fight IRS Ruling	52
35. 12% Rise in Outlays Predicted	53
36. Citing Risk, U.S. Tells Thrifts to Drop 'Equity CDs'	54
37. Compensation for Bhopal	55
38. Computer Snoop – A New U.S. Breed That Roams the Leaky Data Networks	56
39. Continental Says 1984 Loss Was $1.09 Billion	58
40. Should U.S. Banks Receive Bailouts?	59
41. Copper Glut May Cause Permanent Damage to U.S. Industry	61
42. Banish the Economists?	62
43. Fears of 'Crowding Out' of Borrowers Increase in U.S. Markets	63
44. Financial Institutions Look to Encoding for Security	64
45. Currency Options Gain Popularity	65
46. The U.S. as Debtor Nation: A Less Alarming Viewpoint	67
47. U.S. Cut in Discount Rate Prompts Rally in Market	68
48. Seniority Comes Before Race in Guarding Against Layoffs	69
49. Armco Acquisition Strategy Backfires	70
50. Wave of Divestitures Shows Return to Corporate Basics	71

51. A Bull, a Bear or a Buffalo?	72
52. Currency Volatility Makes Tangle of Dumping Issue	73
53. Beyond Exchange Rates	74
54. New Drought Parches U.S. Southwest	75
Reagan Wants to Slash Farmers' Price Supports	75
55. Financial Futures Lure U.S. Banks	76
56. U.S. Steel Concerns Are Using Cheaper Financing Methods	77
57. Franchising's Renewed Popularity	78
58. Ex-Officer at Penn Square Indicted	80
59. Search for Fuel Economy Leads to Improved Tires	81
60. Computer Trading Offered as Answer to Pit Congestion	82
61. Funds Are Winning New Attention	83
62. Filters Cut Cost of Extracting Natural Gas From Garbage	84
63. Investors Staying Away From Gold Despite World Turmoil	85
64. Harvester, on Mend, Now Predicts Profit	86
65. Many U.S. Companies Stop Hedging	87
66. U.S. Eases Rules on High-Tech Exports	88
Austrians Tighten Curb on High-Tech	88
67. A Slowdown in Housing Starts	89
68. Those Creeping Brackets	91
69. Analysts Query Commerce's Index	92
70. Economists See Single-Digit Inflation in 1980s	93
New Hedge Against Inflation	93
71. SEC Chief Backs Stiffer Insider Fines	94
72. U.S. Firms Are Limiting Inventories	95
73. Wall Street Firms Rush to Get into 'Junk Bonds'	96
74. UAW-GM Pact Seen as Major Effort to Tackle Problem of Job Security	97
75. Prospects Good for Approval of Manville Plan	98
76. Medicare's Future Described as Grim Despite Any Temporary Adjustments	99
77. Wall Street Firms Take Merchant-Banking Route	100
78. Analysts Give Good Ratings to Dun & Bradstreet-Nielsen Link	101
79. U.S. Battles World as It Inches Toward Metric Standard	102
80. U.S. Tying Foreign Aid to Exports	103
U.S., France Clash on Mixed Credit	103
81. Money-Laundering Charges Drove Deak & Co., 2 Units to Chapter 11	104
Bank of Boston Warned of Law	104
82. Fed Tightening Credit	105
Many U.S. Investors Still Consider Money-Supply Figures as Crucial	105
83. 8th Birthday of Ginnie Mae Futures	106
84. Mediocre Results Raise Doubts on Mutual Funds	107
SEC Eases Rules on Changes in Mutual Fund Fees	107
85. U.S. Is Set to Begin Shipments of Nuclear Wastes	108
Three Mile Island Officials Sell Cleanup Techniques	108
86. Westinghouse Prepares for Revival in the Market for Nuclear Reactors	109
87. At 3 P.M.: NYSE Volume Is Slower	110
Rate Cut Boosts Prices on NYSE	110
Confusion Hampers NYSE	111
N.Y. Stocks Called Oversold	111
Investors Stay on NYSE Sidelines	111
88. Wang, an Office-Automation Pioneer, Is Slipping Behind in a Crowded Field	112
89. U.S. to Cut in Half Size of Pacific Oil Lease Sale	113
Sohio Well in Alaska Abandoned	113
90. Oil Prices Are Cut Again	114
91. Oil Spill	115
92. OTC Trading Is No Longer a Sideshow	116

93. Biggest U.S. Stock Markets Fight to Lure Investors as Rivalry Intensifies	117
94. Disclosure Rules Eased on Perks of Executives	118
Reagan Ponders Limiting Management Perquisites	118
95. People Come First in List of 100 Best U.S. Firms	119
96. Steelmakers Pin Hopes on Plasma Technology	120
97. Lightweight Plastics Are Challenging Glass in the Market for Drink Bottles	121
98. Lawyer's Suit Forces Widespread Examination of What Prime Rate Really Is	122
99. U.S. Industries Seek Shelter of Import-Curb Law	123
100. How Well Has Reaganomics Worked?	124
101. Rockwell Betting on Reagan	125
102. FCA Chances Depend on Low Interest Rates	126
FCA Fails to Meet Net-Worth Level	126
103. SEC Offers a Plan to Skirt Foreign Secrecy Laws	127
104. U.S. Suit Challenges Firms' Secrecy on Mergers	128
105. Social Security Officials Say Private Alternatives Studied but Not Planned	129
106. U.S. Soybean-Futures Prices Soar as Drought Shrivels Size of Crop	130
107. Steel Woes: A Continually Shrinking Market	131
108. Stock Index Futures Catch Fire Amid U.S. Bull Market	132
109. The Rate Swap Faces Scrutiny in U.S.	133
110. U.S. Synthetic-Fuels Agency Makes First Big Aid Awards	134
Coal-Gas Plant in U.S. Is Shut by Operators	134
111. Mesa-Phillips Plan Called a Model for Oil Firms to Avoid Takeovers	135
112. Tax Breaks Help Shape Americans' Lives	136
113. Marc Rich Seems Classic Immigrant Success Story	137
114. U.S. Seeks to Reduce Loss of Revenues in Fiscal Fuzz of Caribbean Tax Havens	138
115. U.S. Tax Plan Would Increase Corporate Share	139
116. Chrysler Recovery Based on Ruthless Trimming	140
117. Airline Is Accused of Union Busting	141
U.S. Court Gives Failing Companies Latitude to Cancel Union Contracts	141
U.S. Labor Board Decides Industries May Transfer to Nonunion Locations	141
118. Court Ruling Revives Issue of Right of States to Tax Overseas Earnings	142
119. Wholesalers in U.S. Are Changing	143
120. The Enduring Popularity of the Zero Coupon	144
STICHWORTVERZEICHNIS	145