

Contents

Past Research on Performance Evaluation of International Subsidiaries	1
H. Peter Holzer
Introduction 1 – Evolution of the Topic 1 – Research in the 1970s 2 – Recent Developments 4 – Unresolved Issues 9
 Company Approaches
Accounting Techniques Utilized for the Evaluation of International Subsidiaries: The IBM Case	13
R. J. Rubino
Introduction 13 – Business and Organization 14 – European/Middle East and African (E/ME/A) Accounting System 17 – Business Controls 19 – Evaluation Techniques 25 – Conclusion 30
 Monsanto Company – Managing Change	31
Elwood L. Miller
Monsanto Company in Perspective 31 – A Decade of Transition 32 – Monsanto – Circa 1981 32 – Winds of Change 35 – Monsanto Today 37 – Strategic Planning Systems 38 – Operational Planning 41 – Performance Evaluations 43 – International Operations 44 – Role of Internal Auditing 48 – Conclusions 49
 GoldStar Electronics	51
K. Wong Kang and Soong H. Park
Introduction 51 – Organization of the Company 53 – The Planning System 57 – Long-Term Plan Development 58 – Reporting System 61 – Evaluation System 61 – Evaluation of Overseas Subsidiaries 64 – GoldStar Electronics, Ins. 68 – GoldStar of America, Inc. 69 – Summary 70
 FMC Corporation: Inflation-Adjusted Performance Evaluation . .	73
Eric S. Evans
Overview of FMC 73 – Reporting Structure 75 – Inflation Accounting 75 – Constant Dollars versus Current Cost Accounting 76 – FMC Current Cost Accounting 79 – Accounting/Reporting System 80 – Mechanics of FMC's Current Cost Reporting System 81 – Profit and Loss Adjustments 81 – Balance Sheet 82 – Benefits of the System 83 – International Reporting 84 – Incentive System 85 – Summary 86

Management Control and the Internal Auditor: The Borg-Warner Case	87
John C. Fletcher
Control Evaluation Review Technique (CERT) 88 – Traditional Audit Approach 89 – Evolution: From Traditional to CERT 91 – Technique for Evaluating Manufacturing Performance 94 – Summary and Conclusion 98
Performance Evaluation in Multinational Companies: Two European Examples	101
Hanns-Martin W. Schoenfeld
General Observations 101 – Comments on the Philips Case 102 – Comments on the Nixdorf Case 104
Alldelphi Germany (Subsidiary of N. V. Philips Gloelampenfabrieken-Eindhoven/The Netherlands)	107
Hanns-Martin W. Schoenfeld
Description of Worldwide Philips Group (1982) 107 – Description of Alldelphi 109 – General Remarks about the Control and Evaluation System 110 – Parts of the System 110 – Strategic Planning Information 110 – Capital Expenditures Budget 112 – Annual Budget 113 – Reporting System 125 – Performance Indicators 132 – Summary 134
Nixdorf Computer AG Paderborn/Germany	141
Hanns-Martin W. Schoenfeld
Description of the Company 141 – General Remarks of the Planning and Evaluation System 144 – Parts of the System 145 – Planning and Budgeting System 145 – Key Indices 146 – Economica Data 148 – Portfolio Analysis 148 – Sales Price Analysis 149 – Large-Scale Analysis 149 – Investment Planning 149 – Financing 150 – Personnel 151 – Advertising 151 – Rental Policy 151 – Others 152 – Reporting of Operations 153 – Evaluation 154 – General Data 154 – Data on a Departmental Basis 158 – Comparison Actual and Budget 159 – Management Contest: Best Performing Subsidiary 159 – General remarks 159 – Contest Criteria 160 – Contest: Special Targets 161 – Rules 161 – Targets 162
View of Independent Accountants
Performance Evaluation Techniques for International Operations: Impacts on Managerial Incentives and Strategic Planning Considerations	163
Armin C. Tufer and Leisa B. Aiken
Introduction 163 – Strategic Considerations for Establishing Operating Units – The Initial Investment Decision 164 – Monitoring Foreign Operations after the Initial Investment Decision – Common Measures for Evaluating Unit and Manager Performance 165 – Parent versus Local Currency for Performance Evaluation 167

Financial Reporting Systems of Multinational Corporations – An External Auditor’s Viewpoint. 175

Lenz Neuhauser

Developments in the Past Year 175 – Areas of International Environment 178 – Foreign Currencies 178 – Transfer Pricing 180 – Foreign Country Risks 182 – Interest Cost 183 – Foreign Inflation 184 – Performance Measures 185 – Proposals 186 – Foreign Currencies 186 – Transfer Pricing 187 – Country Risk Analyses 187 – Interest Cost 187 – Inflation Accounting 87 – Performance Criteria 188

Performance Evaluation of International Subsidiaries in the Case of Acquisition/Disposal and Annual Audits from the Point of View of Wirtschaftsprüfer 189

Josef Lanfermann

Introduction 189 – Acquisition and Disposal of International Subsidiaries 189 – General 189 – Gathering Information 190 – Types of Information 190 – Difficulties Regarding the Gathering of Information 194 – Reporting 196 – Valuation of an Undertaking 197 – The Conceptual Approach 197 – The Problem of Subjectively Different Business Valuations 197 – Computation of Capitalized Earnings Value – Liquidation Value 203 – Other Conceptually Adequate Procedures 203 – Reporting 203 – Annual Audit 204 – General 204 – Audit Requirements Determined by Local Law and/or Parent Company Management 204 – Organization of International Audit Engagements 205 – A Practical Approach to the Audit of Consolidated Financial Statements of a German Parent Company 209 – The Audit of International Subsidiaries in Germany 210 – Completing Special Assignments 211 – Going Concern Considerations 211 – Conclusions 212 – Appendix A. Information Gathering Report (Specific Example) 212 – Appendix B. Valuation Report (General Structure) 214 – Appendix C. Auditors’ Report (Long-Form Report) 214

The Present State of Performance Evaluation in Multinational Companies. 217

Hanns-Martin W. Schoenfeld

Introductory Remarks on the Method Used 217 – Factors Complicating the Performance Evaluation Process in a Multinational Environment 218 – The Parts of the Performance Evaluation Process in Multinationals 218 – The Overall Process 218 – Long-Range and Strategic Planning 225 – Formulation of Strategic Objectives 225 – Environmental Analysis 226 – Market and Product Analysis 229 – Competitor Analysis 231 – Subsidiary’s Strength and Weaknesses 232 – Formulations of Key Strategies, Individual Plans, and Budgets 232 – Reporting by Subsidiaries 238 – Reporting Procedures 238 – Computation of Return or Residual Income 240 – Computation of Capital Usage and Inflation Impact 241 – Determination of Interest Rates 343 –

Evaluation Procedure 244 – Evaluation Patterns 244 – Evaluation Data 244 – Evaluation Measures beyond Accounting 245 – Conclusions and Future Directions 248
Comprehensive Bibliography	253
Brief Biographical Sketches of Authors	259