

Contents

Introduction	9
Christiane Timmerman, Nadia Fadil, Idesbald Goddeeris, Noel Clycq &amp; Karim Ettourki
Part 1: Research and context	21
1. Social sciences and Moroccan migration in Belgium	23
Christiane Timmerman
2. The study of Islam and Moroccan migration in Belgium	41
Nadia Fadil
3. Historical research on Moroccan migration in Belgium	61
Karim Ettourki, Sam De Schutter &amp; Idesbald Goddeeris
Part 2: Movement and settlement	85
4. Moroccan migration in Belgium's labor policy and labor market	87
Albert Martens
5. Partner migration in the Moroccan community. A focus on time- and contextual evolutions	105
Emilien Dupont, Bart Van de Putte, John Lievens &amp; Frank Caestecker
6. Household division of labor and family formation among Moroccan couples at the turn of the 21 st Century	125
Jonas Wood, Layla Van den Berg &amp; Karel Neels

Part 3: Politics and policy	147
7. Towards a comprehensive integration policy: a critical analysis of how social imaginations underpin Flemish integration policies Noel Clycq &amp; François Levrau	149
8. Moroccan migration and its (unique) pattern of self-organizations? Comparative reflections on Antwerp and Ghent Nicolas Van Puymbroeck	171
9. The shifting Moroccan policy paradigm regarding the integration of MRE's (Moroccans Living Abroad): reconciling transnational ties and migrant integration Rilke Mahieu, Christiane Timmerman &amp; Nadia Fadil	191
 Part 4: Identity and ethnicity	 219
10. Becoming Berber: ethnicity and identity politics among Moroccans in Belgium Norah Karrouche	221
11. Fluctuating identifications among second-generation Moroccans in the Netherlands and Belgium: looking beyond personal experiences via social network analysis Anna Berbers, Leen d'Haenens &amp; Joyce Koeman	241
12. Migration and language use at school: an ethnographic close-up Jürgen Jaspers	267
13. Same-sex sexualities and Belgian Moroccan communities Wim Peumans	285

Part 5: Religion and devotion	305
14. Struggling with the Jinn: Moroccan healing practices and the placebo effect Philip Hermans	307
15. How do Moroccan Muslims in Belgium deal with death and dying? Bert Broeckaert, Goedele Baeke, Stef Van den Branden &amp; Chäïma Ahaddour	329
16. Islamic knowledge and pious becoming among Moroccan Muslims in the region of Brussels Mieke Groeninck	347
17. The power of affective encounters and events: why Moroccan Belgian Sunnis become Shia Iman Lechkar	367
About the Authors	381