

Table of Contents

Introduction	5
1. The Indian's Problem and Its History
1.1. Harjo: Who Am I?	9
1.2. Business Suits or Feathers: Red Indians Turned into White Indians	10
1.3. The Coming of the White Man: The Pretty Colored Snake ..	12
1.4. Seattle: "Dead, Did I Say? There Is No Death"	13
1.5. Indian Citizenship Act, June 2, 1924	18
1.6. Sainte-Marie: My Country.....	22
2. Indian Philosophy: Man & Nature
2.1. The Indian Concept of the Circle of Life	24
2.2. Sarracino & Quetone: Education and the Cradle Board.....	27
2.3. Means: Fighting Words. On the Future of the Earth	32
3. A New Policy: The Fight Against White Supremacy
3.1. Declaration of Indian Purpose	35
3.2. Collier: Alcatraz Is Indian Territory	38
3.3. Barnes: Chief Sitting Bull Now Legal Eagle	42
3.4. Deloria: A New Indian Policy.....	45
4. Indian Reservations: Problems & Perspectives
4.1. Deloria: The Reservations: From Bondage to Independence?	47
4.2. The Right to Be Themselves: The Reservation System and Indian Independence.....	51
4.3. The Only Possible Future	55
4.4. Gillenkirk & Dowie: Peter MacDonald, Consummate American Power Figure....	59
5. The Indian's Search for Identity
5.1. Ablon: Cultural Conflict in Urban Indians: Migration from Reservation to City	65
5.2. Lessing: The Loss of Self. A Cultural Tug-of-War	69

5.3. Ortiz: Relocation.....	71
5.4. Ignacio: Lost	74
5.5. Winkler: In Search of Ideals.
The Problems of Red and White Adolescents.....	75
Historical Dates	78