

CONTENTS

Preface
Elizabeth Huttman and Willem van Vliet-- 3

Affordable Housing and Homelessness: A Comparative View
Jürgen Friedrichs 5

PART ONE: GENERAL ISSUES

Growth Restrictions and Affordable Housing: Dwellings versus People
Willem van Vliet-- 13

Who Gets Housed: The Changing Nature of Housing Affordability
and Access in Advanced Capitalist Societies
David C. Thorns 27

Affordable Housing: Roles for the State and the Community
Jane Darke and Roy Darke 43

PART TWO: THE PROBLEM OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Affordable Housing and the Market - Generalized Swedish Experiences
Arne Karyd 59

Affordable Housing in a Socialist Country - The Case of Prague
Antonin Kerner 75

Large New Housing Estates: The Crisis of Affordable Housing
Jürgen Friedrichs 89

Shadow-Housing. Self-Help of Dwellers in the Netherlands
Wouter Turpijn103

The Goldstein Project. Two Ways to Affordable Housing in the 1920s
Dieter Andernacht115

PART THREE: THE NEW HOMELESSNESS

The New Homeless in Britain
Alan Murie and Ray Forrest129

Homelessness in France. Public and Private Policies
Dan Ferrand-Bechmann147

Homelessness as a Housing Problem in an Inner City in the United States
Elizabeth Huttman157

Paths in Homelessness: A View From the Street
Dennis Culhane and Marc Fried175

About the Authors 189