

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Judith Buber Agassi Introduction: The Redesign of Working Time: Promise or Threat?	11
Albert Mok, President of ISA Research Committee 30 (Antwerp, Belgium) Opening Address: The Sociology of Work and the Design of Working Time	23
1. The Present State of Working Time and the Problem and Consequences of its Redesign Preface to Chapter 1	27
Edwin Schudlich (Frankfurt) Between Consensus and Conflict The Development of Industrial Working Time in the FRG	29
Maria Holstein – Beck (Warsaw) Flexibilization of Working Time in Poland Former Practice and Future Perspectives	41
Gunvor Strømshøim (Oslo) Working Time Reforms in a Welfare Society Preferences, Interests and Conflicts	48
2. Reduction and Flexibilization of Working Hours and the Preservation and Creation of Jobs Preface to Chapter 2	65
Diane Tremblay (Montreal) From Work – sharing to the Flexibilization of Working Time A Comparative Analysis of the Cases of Canada and France	67
Stephen Heycock (Bradford, U.K) New Technology in the Coal Industry and its Effects upon Patterns of Work Organization	84
	5

3.
	Flexibilization, Collective Bargaining, and Working Conditions
	Preface to Chapter 3	97
	Hanns – Georg Brose · Matthias Schulze – Boeing · Monika Wohlrab – Sahr (Marburg, FRG)
	Discontinuity and Flexibility in Working Time and Work Careers The Example of Temporary Work	99
	Carola Möller (Hamburg, FRG)
	Flexibilisation The Impoverishment of the Employees, and the Reduction of Work Place Solidarity	114
	Rudi Schmidt · Rainer Trinczek (Erlangen – Nürnberg, FRG)
	Standardized and Differentiated Working Hours in the Context of an Increasing Deregulation of Working Conditions The West German Experience	129
4.
	Working Time in Industrializing Societies
	Preface to Chapter 4	137
	Litsa Nicolaou – Smokoviti (Piraeus, Greece)
	Redesign of Working Time and Social Change The Case of Greece	139
	Vinita Srivastava (Chandigarh, India)
	Urban Industrial Workers in India Differentiated Labour and Differentiated Hours of Work	145
	Anna Buchner – Jeziorska (Lodz, Poland)
	Working Time in Poland Some Regulations and General Tendencies	161

5.
	Women's Part-time Work
	Preface to Chapter 5	167
	Christel Eckart (Frankfurt, FRG)
	Learning from History?
	Notes on Part-time Work as a Sign of Social Reproductive Needs	169
	Christoph F. Büchtemann (Berlin)
	The Socio-economics of Individual Working Time Reduction
	Empirical Evidence from the FRG	178
	Elaine Stahl Leo (Washington D.C., USA)
	Working Part-time in Male Professions
	Social-Psychological Costs and Benefits Reported by
	Thirty American Women with Families	207
6.
	Working Time Norms and the Status of Women
	Preface to Chapter 6	227
	Irena Reszke (Warsaw)
	Actual and Potential Effects of Patterns of Working Time
	on the Status of Women in Poland	229
	Sheila Allen (Bradford, U.K.)
	Flexibility of Work and Working Time
	A Gendered Approach	238
	Judith Buber Agassi (Frankfurt, FRG)
	The Design of Working Time and the Status of Women	249
	Ingrid Kurz-Scherf (Düsseldorf, FRG)
	Elements of Emancipatory Working Time Policy
	Ten Theses on Making Normal Working Time More Dynamic and
	Freeing It from Patriarchy	256

7.
	The Redesign of Working Time and the Quality of Working Life	261
	Preface to Chapter 7
	Erkki Asp (Turku, Finland)
	Reduction and Flexibility of Working Time in Finland and its Consequences	263
	Seppo Aho (Rovaniemi, Finland)
	Introducing a Common System of Sabbatical Leaves in Various Professions	273
	Leni Beukema (Utrecht, Netherlands)
	The Quality of Work It's Indispensibility for Working Time Policy	285
	Monica Magnusson (Lund, Sweden)
	Employee – designed Working Time Scheduling Some Swedish Examples	298
	The Contributors to this Volume: Short Biographical Notes	311
	Name Index	316
	Subject Index	321