

Contents

	Page
Introduction: The Concept of Sustainable Development	9
Frank J. Dietz, Udo E. Simonis, and Jan van der Straaten
Part I. Restraints and Advances in Theory
Sustainable Development and the Necessary Integration of Eco- logical Insights into Economic Theory	21
Frank J. Dietz and Jan van der Straaten
Institutional Aspects of Sustainable Development	55
Johannes B. Opschoor and Jan van der Straaten
Sustainable Development and Stock Resources: Is There a Contradiction?	75
James Baines and John Peet
Part II. Restraints and Advances in Policy
Missing Links between Economic Theory and Environmental Policy	99
Frank J. Dietz and Jan van der Straaten
Environmental Movements and Sustainable Economic Systems	114
Michael D. Everett
Human Sustainable Development	129
Paul P. Streeten

	Page
Sustainable Development against Vested Interests	138
Johanna M. Kasperkovitz
Sustainable Use of Nutrients in Agriculture: The Manure Problem in the Netherlands	150
Frank J. Dietz
Part III. Restraints and Advances in Technology
Innovative Technologies for Sustainable Development	181
Gerhard Angerer
Sustainable Development—Will the Technology Option Work?	191
Udo E. Simonis
Part IV. Restraints and Advances in International Relations
Global Institutions for Sustainable Development	203
Jonathan M. Harris
Savage Capitalism: International Market Alliances to Conserve Neotropical Forests	226
Peter H. May
Poverty and Sustainable Development	237
Deonanan Oodit and Udo E. Simonis
Sustainable Development: How to Allocate CO ₂ -Emission Reductions?	267
Udo E. Simonis
Subject Index	292
The Authors	296